

Sailing On The Blue

Words and Music by Pamela McNeill

Oh my God, what has happened?
I can't believe that you're gone now
And there was nothing I could do

The telephone, won't stop ringing
I hear my voice in the distance
Saying anything to get me through

And the sky is an ocean
That stretches into earth and breaks in two
How I wish I could go with you
Sailing on the blue

All these tears – I can't stop them
I've never felt so alone
And I thought I knew every kind of pain

This whole world keeps on spinning
People go about their business
Like they don't know how everything has changed

And the sky is an ocean
That stretches into earth and breaks in two
How I wish I could go with you
Sailing on the blue

And my heart is so broken
It cries your name and tears itself in two
So it will always be with you
Sailing on the blue
Sailing on the blue
