

Not Giving Up

Words and Music by Pamela McNeill

This weight in my heart
It burns and it aches
'Cause there's so much I want
And I know, I'm not what I was
But I'm more than I thought
So I'm not giving up, no...

And dreams, these dreams never die
They keep me awake
Night after night
And I'm so tired
I'm tired and I'm lost
And I'm losing the fight
But I'm not giving up

Sometimes it hurts so much
Watching my chances disappear
Knowing I am so close
Keeping the faith all of these years

And if some people say
I went down in flames
Say I went up in song
'Cause it can never be wrong
To do what you love
So I'm not giving up, I'm not giving up

Sometimes it hurts so much
Watching my chances disappear
Knowing I came so close
Keeping the faith all of these years

And this, this weight in my heart
It burns and it aches
'Cause there's so much I want
'Cause I know, I know I'm not what I was
But I'm more than I thought
So I'm not giving up
And if, if some people say
I went down in flames
Tell them I went up in song
I know I'm not what I was

But I'm more than you think I am
So I'm not giving up, no

I'm not giving up...
