

One Good Angel

(Written by Pamela McNeill)

Many years have gone by since you went away.
And sometimes I still cry like it was yesterday.
But through this pain and sorrow
I found beauty, strength and truth and I know that there'll be one good angel coming through.

(Chorus)

One good angel coming through.
One good angel to hold onto.
And when I'm out in the moonlight
I reach up to you,
'Cause I know that there'll be one
good angel coming through.

Never have I known a braver soul.
How come it's the good ones who have to go?
When I'm down and troubled
feeling all mixed up and blue,
I know that there'll be one
good angel coming through.

(Chorus)

One good angel coming through.
One good angel to hold onto.
And when I'm lost in the raindrops
I call out to you,
'Cuz I know that there's one
good angel coming through.
