

This Blue World

(Written by Pamela McNeill)

Don't give up on it now
I really do believe
That we were the ones
sent down to make the difference in this story Yeah, everybody's hurting and feeling incomplete People thrown from their dreams all tangled in the wreckage of tragedies

(Chorus)

This blue world
cries like a broken planet but this blue world is still singin' Na na na na na...

'Cause love is still the answer but now it's been shot down How I want to retreat my faith is bittersweet but it's coming 'round
So tonight I'm gonna stand up And scan the prairie sea Sing the stars, touch the wind and let this world back into my empty being - yeah

(Chorus Repeat)

And I don't know how to deal with what I've seen But this blue world has been through everything

So don't give up on it now
I really do believe
That we were the ones
sent down to make the difference in this story
Yeah

(Chorus Repeat)

This blue world
cries like a broken planet
This blue world

is life hangin' in the balance but this blue world is still spinnin'
na na na na na...
Sing it out now, this blue world,
Don't give up on it now
Don't give up on it now-
So come on!
