

The Ground You Walked On

Words and Music by Pamela McNeill

If I came back tomorrow
Would you remember me?
Out of the smoke and the thunder
Wearing the light of dreams

I only stopped for a moment
I must be on my way now
But I had to come back
To the ground you walked on
The ground you walked on

I hear that you've found a new love
And that you're doing fine
I've driven for days to be here
I waited for years to go by

I only stopped for a moment
I must be on my way now
But I had to come back
Back to the ground you walked on

If you look up for a moment
You'll see the Northern sky is,
Is decorated with stars
It's just like the ground you walked on
The ground you walked on

And I can't help it, baby
For tearing down this wall
Breaking into ancient dreams
And does she love you?
Oh, like I love you
Said, does she love you?
'Cuz oh God, I love you, oh
Yeah, you know
But I had to come back
Back to the ground you walked on, oh
If you look up for a moment
You'll see the Northern star is,
Is decorated with stars
It's just like the ground you walked on
