

SASSY

HONG KONG

18 APRIL, 2016

Hong Kong's Hottest Bartenders

BAR, EAT & DRINK, INFLUENCERS | BY SARAH RICHARD

We've already dished on the hottest male chefs in Hong Kong, with a post coming soon for the hottest female chefs, and now – you've guessed it – it's time to recognise those on the other side of the kitchen; the ones that shake, stir, pour and serve us our favourite cocktails day in, day out. From awkward first dates to dancing on the bar, they've seen it all, and we can only imagine the wild stories they've got on the residents of HK. Without these talented men and women, our weekends wouldn't be half as fun. Here's our Sassy seal of approval for Hong Kong's best bartenders:

Amanda Wan - Tastings Group

Amanda says: "Making someone a drink is a sign of respect and acceptance. It's about people, and the moments shared over these delicious liquid concoctions — be it a coffee or a cocktail." And we love her for that! Starting in the beverage industry in 2005 as a barista, her passion turned from coffee to cocktails and became the first female bartender to represent her country, Malaysia, at the DIAGEO Global World Class Bartender of the Year Competition in 2010.

< PREV

NEXT >