Chinese Laundry Blues

Not Swung, \pm100

Arr. Pete Faint  www.petefaint.com

www.jackhylton.com
Well, Mr. Wu was a laundry man in a shop with an old green door. He'd iron all day. Your linen — a way — he really makes me he's lost his heart to a Chinese girl and his laundry's all gone wrong all day he'll flirt so much that's why I'm singing this Song: Mister Wu

What shall I do?
I'm feeling kind of Limehouse Chinatown Blues

Change to clarinet solo under vocal

Bars:

4

 mf B B 24

 mf F D7 G9 C7(#5) F

 mf C7 F D7 G9 C7(#5) F

 mf C7 F D7 G9 C7(#5) F

 mf C7 F D7 G9 C7(#5) F