VERSE

I'm just about to hold a competition

It's just a little bright idea of mine

I'm going to write a rhyming composition

And then leave you to add the ending line

I'll sing the whole thing first in case of doubt

The second time I'll leave the last line out

There was a young lady of Ealing

Who walked upside down on the ceiling

She fell on her neck

And she shouted 'by Heck!' It's a very peculiar

Fee-ling

That was a cute little rhyme

There was a young fellow of Cosh-am.

Who took out his false teeth to wash 'em.

His wife said, "Oh Jack, if you don't put 'em back, la da da da da da, da da da da da that was a cute little rhyme.

Sing us another one do.

Possible repeats for solos

There was a young man of Calcutta.

Who was having a sleep in the gutter.

The heat from the sun burnt him up like a sun.
