1. GADN News

- Sign up to the GADN Manifesto!

Organisations from across the development sector have been signing up to the UK Gender and Development Manifesto. We are calling on YOU to sign up as well. To see who has already endorsed the GADN asks, go to our home page here or email the UK GADN Coordinator to sign up to the manifesto.

- UK GADN - CSW 2010 Events

The GADN, Amnesty International and One World Action are co-hosting an event at the CSW on 'A post-MDGs world' – what do women want?' The session will explore what women's rights and social justice advocates want to see from a post-MDGs framework, reflecting on the criticisms of the current framework, with a focus on forging pathways forwards. The event is on Saturday 6th March at 10am on the 10th Floor of the Church Center. Please do come along if you can.

One World Action's partner, Emily Sikazwe from Women for Change, Zambia, will be speaking at a UNIFEM/UNDP Breakfast Dialogue on: 'Take Action Now: The Pathway from Beijing' to 2015. The event will be on 2 March from 8.15 – 10.30am in the Delegates Dining Room.

- GADN Attends GEO Roundtable discussion event with Harriet Harman, Minister for Women and Equalities

On 10 February 2010, GADN attended a roundtable event hosted by Harriet Harman (Minister for Women and Equality) and Gareth Thomas (Minister for International Development). The event was aimed at organisations working on gender and development issues and included discussion on the topic of 'What do you think the new UN Agency for Women should be doing and how can we make that happen?' A short feedback report will be produced about the event by the Government equalities office.

- GADN Members' Meeting - Gender, Development and MDGs

The first members' meeting of 2010 will be on 24 March 2010 hosted at Amnesty International Human Rights Action Centre. The meeting will be on the gender and the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) feeding back from the UK GADN event on MDGs and gender at the Commission for the Status of Women in New York in March as well as GADN's planned engagement with the MDG review process and the post MDGs landscape.

- Don't forget! IWD and CSW

Send in your International Women's Day events by the end of this week - we are writing a bulletin to advertise your events to the development sector and please do let us know if you'll be going to CSW and if your organisation is holding a side event.

- GADN Steering Group Meeting

The GADN Steering Group met on 4 February 2010 at the One World Action offices. The first half of the meeting focused on a fundraising workshop, led by Hazel Reeves. The steering group then met to discuss: Proposals for members' meetings, Work plan—priority work areas (VAW; SRHR; MDG Review; DFID processes/aid modalities) and the GEO/DFID roundtable on UN gender entity

2. GADN Members' Update

- Invitation for Eol for study by Oxfam GB and Concern Worldwide on Emergency Cash Transfer Programmes and Gender
Oxfam GB and Concern Worldwide will soon be commissioning a multi country research to study the impact of emergency cash transfer programmes on gender power relations. We are currently inviting expression of interest (Eol) from interested individuals/organisations to investigate the following hypothesis: "Gender sensitive emergency cash transfer programmes contribute to enhancing women's economic and social status in society and within the household." Eol is invited from interested individuals and organisations by the 15 February 2010. For more information email Ms. Nupur Kukrety or Ms Ruchi Tripathi
- Invitation to Tender to undertake research looking at the role of the church in responding to sexual violence against women, for Tearfund UK
Tearfund UK is looking for a consultant to undertake research looking at the role of the church in responding to sexual violence against women (SVAW), particularly in conflict and post conflict situations. This piece of work in the first phase aims to reflect on the role the church has played to date in 3-4 countries where SVAW is largely prevalent and the second phase of this action research seeks to support the church to play a crucial part in preventing SVAW. To apply or get more information, please email Ari Clowney. Deadline for submission of tender is 31 March 2010.
- Bangladesh Dalit Human Rights and One World Action are delighted to launch 'Defiant Voices,' a landmark online photo exhibition illustrating the daily lives of Dalit communities in Dhaka, Bangladesh. Bangladesh Dalit Human Rights is working in partnership with One World Action to tackle caste discrimination in Bangladesh. You can view this exhibition here.
- Oxfam International has published a discussion paper, titled Gender Perspectives on the Global Economic Crisis, by Richard King and Caroline Sweetman. This paper is a product of the Gender and the Economic Crisis: Impact and Responses Workshop, held at Oxfam House in September 2009. It can be downloaded from this link under publication section. The Economic Crisis Special Issue of Gender & Development will be out in July 2010.
- Oxfam International is currently running a consultation period on a draft economic crisis research paper, The Global Economic Crisis and Developing Countries: Impact and Response, by Duncan Green, Richard King, and May Miller Dawkins. Oxfam is asking for external comments and feedback on the paper, with a deadline of 26 February 2010. All contributions used in the final paper will be acknowledged. For more information email Oxfam.
