If I ran the world...

Take a few minutes with your family to brainstorm answers to these questions.

Make a list of all the things you’re grateful for.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Now make a list of things you wish you could make better in the world.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Who are your real life heroes and why?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

If you ran the world, what problem would you fix first?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

If you ran the world, what would you make sure every person had?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________