HOW CAN WE HELP PEOPLE COPING WITH ILLNESS?

Coping with a serious illness is frightening for any family, and it can be exhausting (emotionally and physically) to support a loved one who is really sick. Your family can provide meaningful encouragement, comfort and distraction from the long days of treatment and convalescence.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Nearly 40% of people will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetime (cancer.gov).
- 27,000 children are diagnosed with a life-threatening illness each year.
- There are 7,000 types of rare diseases and disorders, and new ones are discovered all the time.
- 1 in 10 Americans are living with a rare disease.

READ WITH ME

_The Lemonade Club_ by Patricia Polacco tells the story of a friendship between two girls when one of them gets cancer.

- What does the expression “when life gives you lemons, make lemonade” mean to you?
- How did you feel when Marilyn’s friends shaved their heads? Do you think you could have done the same thing?
- Has someone ever gone out of their way to help you when you felt sick? What happened?

LET’S TALK

At mealtime or bedtime, or when you’re on the way to help out, bring up these questions.

- Do you remember ever being sick for a long time? How would it feel to be sick for weeks, months or even years?
- Was there a time when you weren’t feeling well and someone did something nice for you? How did it feel?
- Sometimes it can be uncomfortable to be around a sick person or visit a hospital. Why is that? What can we do to change that feeling?
