AFC Participates in Futuristic Non-Panel Tonight

Film still from Alfred Hitchcock's 109 minutes of Douglas Gordon's 24 Hours of Psycho

Check out Art Fag City in an inventive “non-panel” panel discussion tonight at EFA Project Space. Titled The Glorified Docent, the project is initiated by artist and curator Trong Nguyen. The Glorified Docent is structured after the cult comedy TV series Mystery Science Theater 3000 in which a man and his robot cronies are trapped on a satellite and forced to watch awful movies. The gaggle of critics are supposed to act as a peanut gallery, offering knee-jerk criticisms on site. Other critics include David Coggins, Bill Cole, Steve Dumain, the Eh-Team, Sarah Hromack, Lady Rizo, and Nathan Shafer. The non-panel begins at 6pm tonight at EFA Project Space, 323 W 39th St, 2nd Floor, and runs concurrently with the exhibition Never Late than Better.
