Camp Creative

Youth will explore different weekly themes in an environment of creative exploration- combining mixed media art making, the performing arts and recreation activities. Campers will learn from professional instructors in a variety of activities (depending on session week): traditional fine arts (drawing, painting, printmaking), performing arts (dance, music, theater), arts & crafts. No art or music experience required, just a love to learn and try new things.

Create your own Superhero

Immersive learning about Pop Art, Superhero cartoons and comics. Students will develop their own character to bring to life through drawing, cape making, clay action figure and performance.
