

Breton CNC Machine Operator & Programmer

Company

Gosford Quarries the sandstone people since 1922 is Australia's leading sandstone producer and is widely recognised for its expertise in all areas of quarrying, processing and supply in the residential, commercial building, landscaping, civil and restoration markets.

Role

This role reports to the Production Manager and you will be responsible for the operation of the Breton CNC Machine .

Location

Glenorie NSW 2157

The Successful Applicant

- Must be able to create 3D presentations from architectural drawings with renderings converting from 2D to 3D drawings for customer presentations and visualization of the final product;
- Must be experienced in planning and organizing fabrication for stone material using the Breton CNC Machine;
- Be able to work flexible hours to fulfil production requirements;
- Own transport required

What we offer

- Competitive market remuneration
- Supportive working environment
- Opportunities for career advancement.