

TERMS OF THE BRETT BEYER SAILING PROGRAMS

June 2020

The programs are conducted by Brett Beyer Sailing and all contractual arrangements are between the participant and Brett Beyer Sailing. Double Bay Sailing Club disclaims all liability, including liability for negligence. The programs will run for the advertised number of sessions as stated, except as notified. Brett Beyer Sailing reserves the right to skip particular sessions at its discretion for reasons that may include, without limitation, conflicting coaching responsibilities, competition events, holiday periods and weather. If a session is skipped at the option of Brett Beyer Sailing, the program will be extended to ensure participants receive the advertised number of sessions or applicable monies will be refunded. If a participant is unable to attend a particular session when the program is conducted, the participant forfeits the entitlement to that session and Brett Beyer Sailing does not have to make good. Any sample reports are indicative only and Brett Beyer Sailing does not warrant the form or content and accepts no liability if the form or content differs. Where applicable, Brett Beyer Sailing will record real-time technical observations on various eligible participants using a dictaphone or other means. However, due to the number of eligible participants, and the practicalities involved with monitoring all participants, Brett Beyer Sailing may not provide individual on-water or written technical comments where applicable for each eligible participant each session or at all. Brett Beyer Sailing accepts no responsibility for failure of electronic equipment including a failure to record GPS information where applicable, and the resulting inability to provide the advertised content including content that is similar to that shown in any sample or prior reports. Each participant is responsible at the end of each session for the undamaged return to Brett Beyer sailing of the GPS device (where one is provided to them), and must reimburse Brett Beyer Sailing on a full indemnity basis for any loss associated with a failure to do so. Brett Beyer Sailing does not guarantee equal coaching time for each participant where applicable. The programs will not occur at all or for a particular class if Brett Beyer Sailing deems there to be insufficient subscribers. The programs will not occur at the advertised price if there are less than the required minimum subscribers if applicable. By their subscription, participants accept these terms.
