Operation Christmas Child- Shoe Box Update

We are almost there. Our shoe box collection is looking good, but we could use a few more items, such as: scissors, #2 pencils, erasers, soap, calculators (from Dollar Tree), jewelry, and hard candy. Also, fabric is needed for about 15 more pillowcase dresses.

From the Desk of Andy Jung...

The role of our deacons is incredible valuable for the ministry of First Baptist Church. Our deacons are the church's frontline ministers. Our deacons are consistently making contacts with their assigned families, serving the needs of the church on a weekly basis and living an exemplary life in the community. Without our deacons, we would not be able to meet the needs of our families.

As we finish up the 2015-2016 church year, we have six wonderful servant leaders who are rotating off after serving for four years. I appreciate the work of these fine deacons who have made my job easier over the past two years: J.C. Boone, Angela Mills, Linda Henson, Russ Myers, Ed Thomas and Eston West. Thank you for serving our church family and the Lord so faithfully.

I look forward to our new deacons who will be taking up the mantle for those who are rotating off: Bruce Myers, Glenda Pope, Bob Sweet and Reta Thompson. I look forward to working together to move our church forward.

I would also like to thank Angela Mills, Linda Carter and Lindsey Dunevant for serving as our deacon chair, vice-chair and secretary respectively. Their leadership helped to make this past year a successful one. The new deacon officers for the upcoming year are John Sullivan (chair), Jamie Kimrey (vice-chair) and Lindsey Dunevant (secretary). Thank you for taking on additional leadership to guide this church.

As we begin a new church year, we will start with an emphasis on our time of worship together. We will focus on specific areas of worship:

Sept. 04 – Worship as God's Mission

Sept. 11 – Christ Centered, Bible Based Worship (Dr. Lynn Brinkley – guest preacher)

Sept. 18 – Participatory Worship (Matt Trick – guest musician)

Sept. 25 – Encountering Christ in Worship (Brass Ensemble – guest musicians)

Oct. 02 – Grace Filled Worship (Dr. Tony

If you are in town during this holiday weekend, I hope to see you in worship. Andy

FAMILY MINISTRY NEWS

This Sunday is Promotion Sunday! It's a big day for our First Baptist children and students. With the new church year we have a few changes to our Sunday School program.

1. Preschool will have three classes: Babies, Toddlers and 3's & 4's. Preschool classes will meet in the nursery area.
2. Graded Classes: Grades K-2, Grades 3-5 will meet upstairs. Middle & high school students meet downstairs.
3. Sunday School coordinators will meet and greet the children and students and collect the Sunday School attendance.

Sunday School is a wonderful opportunity for children and adults to learn about the Bible. No matter what age you are Sunday School is an important part of faith formation. Join us the Sunday as we begin a new church year together.
