Transitions in life bring forth a great paradox. Change can be exciting because it brings out the adventuresome side of our lives. However, change can also be scary due to the unknown. Yet, we know that every transition can be an opportunity to learn and grow in our faith because God walks with us every step of the way.

I am excited for Michael, Betsy, Madelyn and Emma as they move to Boone at the end of July for Michael to be the Associate Pastor of Students at First Baptist Church of Boone. This is a wonderful opportunity for Michael to grow in his ministry and Boone is a wonderful college town with great opportunities for him and his family. I am familiar with First Baptist Boone and their senior pastor. Michael will be working alongside a wonderful minister and a talented staff.

I would like to personally thank Michael for his ministry with our church family. He has done a great job of leading our ministry to children, youth and their families. Over the past two years, he has led a restructuring of our children's ministry. He has led the Children's Ministry Committee in creating policies to not only keep our children safe but to provide the best possible environment to learn about God. He has also laid a solid foundation for our Student Ministry and has helped our students to develop into committed followers of Jesus. First Baptist Albemarle should be proud of helping Michael recognize his call, cultivating his passions and helping him to grow as a minister.

As God is calling Michael and his family to Boone, we also know that God is preparing others to join our church family to continue the ministries of the church. Rest assured that our leaders are working to ensure that our ministries continue at a high level. As soon as plans are put in place, we will share how we will move forward as a church family. Until then, please pray for Michael, Betsy, Madelyn and Emma as they prepare for the transition. Also pray for our church as we look to the future.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him and he will direct your path.” (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Family Ministry News

It is with a mixture of sadness and excitement that I write this letter to inform you of my resignation as the Associate Pastor of Families here at First Baptist of Albemarle. My last day will be Sunday, July 23rd. I have accepted the call to First Baptist Church of Boone as the Associate Pastor and Minister of Students beginning August 1st. I have truly been blessed with the opportunity to minister along side many wonderful people here at First Baptist. I will never forget the experience of pastoring in the church where I grew up. It has given me time to learn and grow as a minister and I have been truly happy serving here. However, it is time for me to take the next step in God's plan for me and my family.

In the Sticky Faith Journey, we talk a lot about stories. These stories are about relationships and how they shape our lives and our faith. I am honored that so many of you have been an integral part of my story. I can say without a doubt you are one of the reasons I am where I am today. These loving relationships make it very difficult to make this transition. At the same time, my faith created by God and strengthened here at this wonderful church, is what is allowing me to move into the next part of my ministry. The love and support from all of you as I began my ministerial journey have been overwhelming. As my family moves into the next chapter of our journey, we continue to covet your love and prayers. From the bottom of my heart, I thank you for everything you have done for me and my family. Michael
