Words From the Pastor

The Associate Pastor Search Committee is excited to present its candidate for our next Associate Pastor of family Ministries: Rev. Jacob Waldrip and his wife, Brittani. Over the past several months, the search committee has prayerfully considered many resumes' and held several online interviews. The committee then narrowed the number of candidates to two and finally was led to extend an in-view-of-call to Jacob.

Jacob comes to us well qualified for ministry. He is a preacher's kid from Chester, SC and a graduate of Furman University in Religion. Jacob received his Master of Divinity with a focus in New Testament Research at McAfee School of Theology in Atlanta, GA. Over the last year and half, he has been the Ministerial Resident at First Baptist Church of Augusta, GA where he has mainly focused on Student Ministry.

Though Jacob is academically well qualified, what drew Jacob to the Search Committee was his passion for ministry in the local church. He and Brittani have a deep love for people. They are relational in their approach to ministry and have a desire to invest themselves in the church and in the local community. They especially have a passion for the people who are marginalized in our society.

I look forward to you meeting Jacob and Brittani and experiencing for yourself their energy and passion. Their in-view-of-call weekend is set for Nov. 4-5. I hope you will make time in your schedule to meet and greet this young couple as we discern God's leading together. For more information on Jacob and Brittani, please refer to their brochure or our church website.

This Sunday, we will celebrate our continuing partnership with Stanly County Habitat for Humanity in our time of worship. We will also continue our study of Hearing God's Call by taking a closer look at Samuel's calling. See you on Sunday!

YOUTH FALL RETREAT

1 John 3:1 says, "See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!". This weekend, 18 youth and 7 adults traveled to Ridgecrest Conference Center and spent the weekend unpacking that verse and learning that it means our identity is rooted in the fact that we are children of God. We had lots of worship time, small group conversations, late night talks about Jesus by the bonfire, and even some friendly competition in outdoor laser tag. I am so grateful to the youth who adventured to the mountain with a willingness to learn and experience God, and I saw God at work throughout the weekend. One of my favorite parts of the retreat was seeing the adult leaders (Lee Allen, Scottie Chambers, Andy Jung, Krista McGuire, Renee Perryman, and Bill Timberlake) bond with the youth and show God's love to them in both big and small ways. A huge thank you goes to Jamie Kimrey, who drove the bus this weekend! This retreat couldn't have happened without the support of those amazing leaders, or without the prayers of this congregation.
