Words From the Pastor

I love the fact that First Baptist has embraced the idea of being a teaching church. Over the past few years, we have provided opportunities for young adults to explore their calling and vocation for their lives. It has also brought vitality to our church!

Over the last three summers, we have called a Summer Intern to help with the ministries with our children and youth. The primary role of the Summer Intern has been to plan and lead the Summer Day Camps and assist with the Cooking Camps. In addition, the intern spent time with our youth and supported our Associate Pastor of Family Ministries.

Our first summer intern was Brittan Coats (2015) followed by Alyssa Queen (2016) and Elizabeth Hudson (2017). This year, I am excited to introduce you all to our new Summer Intern, Rachel Langley. Here is her bio in her own words:

Hello FBC Albemarle! My name is Rachel Langley and I will be an intern with you all this summer! I am so excited to meet each of you and get to know you and hear your stories as I work with the children, youth, and the church as a whole. A little about me - I'm from Raleigh, NC (and spent some of my high school years in Andy's youth group at Trinity). I just finished my junior year at Wake Forest University where I am studying Elementary Education, Latin American Studies, and Spanish. Next fall I'll be student teaching in a Kindergarten class in Winston-Salem. I love to travel-abroad and around the US-and I hope to visit every state in the US! In my free time I love to read, do crafts, make and eat food with friends and family, and spend time enjoying God's creation!

My passion for working with kids, teaching them about how much Jesus loves them, and helping them realize their place in the kingdom of God are the main reasons this internship interested me to begin with. I think it is so important for children to have places where they can grow in their faith from very early on-like the camps at FBC Albemarle during the summer. I also have such fond memories of church interns throughout my childhood and youth years, and I hope to be that for the kids and youth this summer. I also hope that I get to know the church as a whole - I love adults too! I love spending intentional time with people and hearing their stories. I think we have so much to learn from each other! So, feel free to stop me after church and introduce yourself, set up a coffee date, or just find casual time to hangout and chat!

I am so excited for this summer and the opportunities it holds! I can't wait to love on your children, hang out with your students, and spend time getting to know your adults. I'm so ready to meet all y'all!

Rachel's internship will start on May 28th and finish on Sunday, August 12th. Please make Rachel feel welcome when she arrives!

This Sunday, we will celebrate Pentecost Sunday by gathering together for worship and the Lord's Supper. In addition, we will have our quarterly covered dish lunch and church conference. See you on Sunday!

THANK YOU

Thank you so much to those who donated through OIAM to the purchase of car seats for the Pregnancy Resource Center. Donations exceeded the costs so extra money was donated to PRC. Also, during the Baby Bottle Boomerang in February, FBC collected over $1,100. Awesome!

Thank you so much! Betty Mauldin

The SCCM food pantry is in need of food this time of year. More donations come in during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays and not so much now. Children will soon be out of school for the summer and many will miss lunches. Our Missions Committee is sponsoring a "Let's Can Hunger" FBC Food Drive: This is the last Sunday! Our goal is to collect at least 2,000 items. Buddy up with your class and purchase by the case! Food goes to the SCCM Food Pantry. We can do this!
