On Monday November 19th, 2007 Charles J. Quilter II, a doctoral candidate in history at the University of California Irvine, will present a talk to the Laguna Beach Historical Society on the effects of Spanish colonialism, disease, and religion on the native Takic-speaking peoples of south Orange County up through the end of the Mission Era. He uses Spanish records as well as recent scholarship on disease, religion, and identity to discuss the questions: what happened to the original inhabitants this region after the first Spanish explorers visited the area in 1542; why didn’t Spain colonize California earlier; and finally, how did the Spanish project to convert these peoples to Christianity actually work?

Charlie Quilter is better known in Laguna Beach as longtime president of the Laguna Beach Patriots Day Parade Association. Charlie is a retired Marine Colonel who served as an aviator in Vietnam and later as a military historian in the Desert Storm, Bosnia, and Iraq conflicts. He has written two books on Marine Corps history. Since his retirement as a captain for Delta Air Lines and recall to active duty as a Marine in 2003, he has been pursuing a doctorate in history at UCI with a focus on war, technology, and disease. He is also a fellow of the Center for German and European Studies.

For those having treasured historic photographs or printed material, the Historical Society is happy to scan them electronically and return them to the owners. This way there will be a record preserved for future generations without the necessity for the owners to relinquish the item.

Thankfully, we have some new additional photographs to the Laguna Beach Historical Society photographic collection.

President’s Message by Kimberly Stuart

This year marks the City of Laguna Beach’s 80th year of incorporation. The anniversary celebration becomes even more special in the month of May for Heritage Month events going on all over town. Events still include (after this mailing): Guided walks of Historic Downtown Laguna, Crystal Cove Historic District Guided Walk, Natural History Hike – Laguna Wilderness Park, Heritage Tours, and the Laguna Art Museum. Call Nancy Csira, Senior Planner, City of Laguna Beach 949/497-0332 for more information.

The Laguna Beach Chamber of Commerce and Civic Association is celebrating its 90th anniversary. The Laguna Beach Historical Society invites you to join us at our upcoming event:

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND CIVIC ASSOCIATION

HERITAGE MONTH MIXER

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16TH, 2007 - HOSTED BY THE LAGUNA BEACH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

at THE MURPHY SMITH BUNGALOW at 278 OCEAN AVENUE

The home, built in 1923 is one of the few remaining original residential structures in the downtown. The Laguna Beach Historical Society leases the grounds and building from the Wells Fargo Bank, and brings in volunteers to provide our members and the public with weekend opportunities to experience a bit of home life in the 1920’s. Please join us in a stroll through the Murphy Smith Bungalow’s newly replanted gardens, enjoy the new exhibits and artwork inside, pick up some information, or buy some copies of historic photographs. We will have plenty of food & drink to enjoy, provided by our neighbor businesses on Ocean Avenue, while visiting with local history buffs and curious supporters. We will also have an ample supply of autographed copies of Joan Irvine Smith’s new book – through the contribution of Mr. Richard O’Neill and Joan Irvine Smith, A California Woman’s Story for your $100.00 donation the Laguna Beach Historical Society.

I would like to send a special Thank You the Laguna Beach Garden Club for its tremendous contribution to the Murphy Smith Bungalow over the last couple of months. Janene Freitas and Nancy Englund have orchestrated a wonderful palette of plant materials with the tremendous assistance of Christine Fusano, and a great crew of volunteers who have generously given their time and energy to revitalizing the gardens of the Murphy Smith Bungalow. Thank you to Chris Lutz and Tom Simpson for their special efforts in support of this exciting beautification project in our downtown.

Please consider being a volunteer at the Murphy Smith Bungalow on a Friday, Saturday or Sunday afternoon for a few hours – you’ll love sharing memorable anecdotes and current activities of the visitors you meet.

DICK METZ, SURFING & THE LAGUNA CONNECTION

Monday, May 21st at 7:30 p.m. in the Laguna Beach City Council Chambers

Please mark your calendar and don’t forget to bring your board.
