the same is hereby entered June Pro Temp.
DECLARING RESULT OF STOCK LAW ELECTION IN HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS:
WHEREAS, on the 24th day of May A.D. 1930, an election was held in Harris County, Texas, to determine whether HOGS, GOATS AND SHEEP shall be permitted to run at large in the limits of Harris County, Texas;
And,
WHEREAS, said election was duly held, according to law, on the 24th day of May, A.D. 1930, in said Harris County, Texas, in pursuance of an order of the Commissioners’ Court of Harris County, Texas, made and entered on the 14th day of April, A.D. 1930, the notice of said election having been duly published and posted, for at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of said election; and,
WHEREAS, at said election there were cast 6771 votes for the stock law and 2859 votes against the stock law, as shown by the returns of said election, which were duly counted, tabulated and canvassed by the Commissioners’ Court of Harris County, Texas, as required by law.
NOW, THEREFORE, I, Norman Atkinson, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do hereby issue this proclamation declaring that said election was carried by a vote of 3912, in favor of the provisions of said law;
And,
WHEREAS, the Commissioners’ Court of Harris County, Texas, was heretofore petitioned by the State of Texas, County of Harris, for the purpose of determining whether or not horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle shall be permitted to run at large in Harris County, Texas, and,
WHEREAS, the said petition was granted and said petition was granted and I, in my official capacity as County Judge of Harris County, Texas, was authorized to issue this proclamation declaring the result of said election, and,
WHEREAS, said election was ordered by me in my official capacity as County Judge to be held in Harris County, Texas, on Saturday, May 24th, 1930, as fully set out in said order of election; and,
WHEREAS, said election was duly held in Harris County, Texas, on Saturday, May 24th, 1930, and by a canvass of the returns thereof, made in the presence of Celia R. Halle and Robert Conner, two credible and disinterested persons of Harris County, Texas, and,
WHEREAS, in said canvass the returns thereof were shown, to wit:

- FOR THE STOCK LAW Received 6829 votes
- AGAINST THE STOCK LAW Received 3347 votes

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Norman Atkinson, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do hereby declare that said election resulted in favor of the provisions of said law prohibiting the running at large of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle in Harris County, Texas, and no animal of this class shall be permitted to run at large within the confines of Harris County, Texas, after the expiration of sixty days from the date of the posting of this Proclamation declaring the result of said election, issued by me, in my official capacity as County Judge, as required by law.

Order canvass of returns of the Stock Law Election having been omitted from the Records under date of June 2nd, by the same is hereby entered.

PROCLAMATION
DECLARING RESULT OF STOCK LAW ELECTION IN HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS:
WHEREAS, on the 24th day of May A.D. 1930, an election was held in Harris County, Texas, to determine whether HOGS, GOATS AND SHEEP shall be permitted to run at large in the limits of Harris County, Texas;
WHEREAS, said election was duly held, according to law, on the 24th day of May, A.D. 1930, in said Harris County, Texas, in pursuance of an order of the Commissioners’ Court of Harris County, Texas, made and entered on the 14th day of April, A.D. 1930, the notice of said election having been duly published and posted, for at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of said election; and,
WHEREAS, at said election there were cast 6699 votes for the Stock Law and 3347 votes against the Stock Law, as shown by the returns of said election, which were duly counted, tabulated and canvassed by the Commissioners’ Court of Harris County, Texas, according to law, in the presence of Albert Townsend, County Clerk of Harris County, Texas, and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Commissioners’ Court, and Ed. J. H. Say, Justice of the Peace of said County, Precinct No. One, as required by Law.
NOW, THEREFORE, I, Norman Atkinson, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do hereby issue this proclamation declaring that said election was carried by a vote of 3352, in favor of the provisions of this Proclamation, it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large within Harris County, Texas, any of the above mentioned animals, to wit: Hogs, Goats, and Sheep.
TO CERTIFY WHICH, I have heretofore signed my name as County Judge of Harris County, Texas, and affixed the seal of the County Court of said County, at Houston, Texas, this 2nd day of June, A.D. 1930.

Norman Atkinson, County Judge, Harris County, Texas.

Attest: Albert Townsend, County Clerk, and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Commissioners’ Court of Harris County, Texas.
Tuesday, May 31st, A. D., 1938.

140. Southland School. Southland School, E. M. Ramin, Presiding Judge; Mrs. Lena M. Parker, F. L. Scott, Mrs. Sam Hatfield.

The officers holding said election shall hold same in accordance with the General Election laws and in accordance with Chapter Six Title 111, of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925. It is further ordered that the County Judge shall cause to be given public notice of said election for at least thirty days before the day of the election by publication of the order thereof in a daily newspaper published in said county, said publication of said order to be for a period of not less than thirty days before the day of election.

Further orders are reserved until the return of said election are made by the duly authorized election officers and duly received as provided by law.

Therefore, I, R. H. Spencer, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do hereby call said election, for the purpose aforesaid, for the whole state of Texas, to be held as above set out in the order of the said Commissioners' Court, and direct that this order for said election be published in the Houston Post, a newspaper published in said county for thirty (30) days before the day of said election.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Houston, this 11th day of April, A.D., 1938.

R. H. Spencer, County Judge, Harris County, Texas.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF HARRIS.

I, Albert Townsend, Clerk of the County Court and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of an order entered by the County Judge on the 11th day of April, A.D., 1938, under authority of an order of the Commissioners' Court of the County of Harris, Texas, made on the 11th day of April, A.D., 1938, at a regular meeting of said Court, a quorum being present, which order is of Record in Vol. I, Pages 74, et seq., of the Minutes of said Court, submitting the question of whether or not horses, mules, jacks, jennets and saddle shall be permitted to run at large in Harris County, Texas, which minutes have been duly signed by the County Judge, witness my hand and seal of the Commissioners' Court at Houston, Texas, this 15th day of April, A.D., 1938.

ALBERT TOWNSEND, Clerk of the County Court and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas. (Seal)

PUBLISHERS AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF HARRIS.

Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public, in and for Harris County, Texas, on this day personally came A. B. Clarkson, Secretary-Treasurer of the Houston Post, a daily newspaper published at Houston, in said county and State, who, after being by me duly sworn, pronounced, that he, as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Houston Post, a daily newspaper published in the City of Houston, Harris County, Texas, that the attached notice for stock law election was published in the Houston Post on April 19, 1938, to May 21, 1938, both days inclusive, such notice being for an election to be held in Harris County, Texas, in the Houston Post is a newspaper of general circulation. A. B. Clarkson, Secretary-Treasurer of The Houston Post.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 22nd day of May, A.D., 1938.

M. E. Williams, Notary Public, Harris County, Texas. (Seal).

RESULT OF ELECTION

WHEREAS, the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas, was heretofore petitioned by A. S. Jones and 117 other freeholders of said county for an election to be held in said county for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county to determine whether horses, mules, jacks, jennets and saddle shall be permitted to run at large in said county; and,

WHEREAS, said Court duly granted said petition, and passed an order directing an election for such purpose to be held throughout the county, as designated therein, as fully set out in said order; and duly authorized me as such Judge to call said election; and,

WHEREAS, said election was duly ordered by me in my official capacity as said Judge, to be held for the whole of said county on the Twenty-first (21) day of May, A.D., 1938, as fully set out in said order of election; and,

WHEREAS, said election was duly held in said county on said last named date, and the returns thereof were duly made, and were duly opened, tabulated and counted by me as said Judge in the presence of Albert Townsend, County Clerk of said County, and in the presence of J. M. Ray, Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, Position No. 1, of said County, and in the presence of Claude L. Starkey and R. J. Shallerossa, two respectable freeholders of said county; and, therefore, the result of said election thus determined, showed:

FOR THE STOCK LAW 5750 votes were cast.
AGAINST THE STOCK LAW 2228 votes were cast.
Thus showing a majority for the stock law of 3522 votes.

Now, Therefore, I, R. H. Spencer, County Judge of said County, do hereby declare the result of said election to be in favor of the stock law, and do hereby find and declare that said election resulted in favor of the law prohibiting the running at large of horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle in said Harris County, and no animal of any of these classes of stock shall be permitted to run at large in said Harris County after the expiration of Thirty (30) days from the date of posting of the Proclamation declaring the result of said election, issued by me in my official capacity as such Judge, and the said County Clerk of Harris County is hereby ordered to duly record this order.

Certified by me as such Judge, on this the 31st. day of May, A. D., 1932.

R. H. Spencer, County Judge, Harris County, Texas. [Seal].

PROCLAMATION
DECLARING THE RESULT OF STOCK LAW ELECTION IN HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS.

Whereas, on the 31st day of May, A. D., 1932, an election was duly held in Harris County, Texas, to enable the freeholders of said county to determine whether horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle shall be permitted to run at large in said county; and, therefore, notice of said election was duly published in The Houston Post, a daily newspaper published in the City of Houston, in said county, for at least thirty days before the day of said election, being published in said newspaper once a day for more than thirty consecutive days; and, therefore, all notice thereof was cast 5750 votes "For the Stock Law" and 2228 votes "Against the Stock Law," as shown by the returns of said election, which were duly opened, tabulated and counted by me in the presence of Albert Townsend, Clerk of the County Court of said County, and J. M. Ray, Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, Position No. 1, of said County, and of Claude L. Starkey and R. J. Shallerossa, two respectable freeholders of said county; and, therefore, the result of said election has been declared by me to be in favor of the stock law; and, therefore, an order showing such result has been duly recorded in the Minutes of the Commissioners' Court of said County;

Now, Therefore, Know All Men By These Presents: That I, R. H. Spencer, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do issue this Proclamation declaring the result of said election, and declaring that the said result of said election was in favor of the said stock law, and that after the expiration of Thirty (30) days from the issuance of this Proclamation it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large in said Harris County any animal of the class mentioned in this Proclamation, to-wit: horses, mules, jacks, jennets, and cattle.

To certify which I hereto sign my name as County Judge of said County, and affix the seal of the County Court of said County, at Houston, Texas, this the 31st day of June, A. D., 1932.

R. H. Spencer, County Judge, Harris County, Texas. [Seal].

Affidavit of Posting of Proclamation

The State of Texas,

County of Harris.

In compliance with Article 6682 of the Revised Statutes of Texas of 1925, providing for the posting of the Proclamation of the County Judge of said Harris County declaring the result of the election held in said county on the 31st day of May, A. D., 1932, to be in favor of the stock law, and making it unlawful to permit to run at large in said Harris County any animal of the classes mentioned in said Proclamation, to-wit: horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle, after the expiration of Thirty (30) days from the issuance of said Proclamation, I, Albert Townsend, as Clerk of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, and ex-officio clerk of the Commissioners' Court of said County, do hereby certify and state on my oath that I, in the capacity aforesaid, and as directed by said Judge, did, as required by law and in compliance with the law, duly post at the Court House door of said County, in the City of Houston, the Proclamation aforesaid.

Witness my hand at Houston, Texas, this the 1st day of June, A. D., 1932.

ALBERT TOWNSEND, As Clerk of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, and ex-officio clerk of the Commissioners' Court of said County. [Seal].

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 1st day of June, A. D., 1932.

F. Bennett, Notary Public, Harris County, Texas. [Seal].
STOCK LAW ELECTION NOTICE

To the freeholders and qualified voters of Harris County under the Constitution and laws of Texas:

Take notice that an election will be held at the usual voting places in the several election precincts of Harris County to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county, said election being for such purpose being duly ordered for the whole county.

Said election to be held in obedience to the order of the County Judge ordering said election to be held; the Commissioners' Court of said County having duly passed an order for such election, said order of the said County Judge ordering such election in as follows:

COUNTY JUDGE'S ORDER.

The State of Texas,
County of Harris.

Eherses, at a regular session of the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas, held on the 11th day of April, A.D., 1932, at which session a quorum of all members thereof were present, there was passed the following order authorizing me as County Judge of Harris County, Texas, to call an election in Harris County, Texas, for the purpose of determining whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county, said election being for such purpose being duly ordered for the whole county, and I hereby, as such County Judge do order said election held for the purposes and at the places set out therein; said order of said Commissioners' Court being as follows:

The State of Texas,
County of Harris.

On this the 11th day of April, A.D., 1932 a regular term of the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas, a quorum being present, was convened to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county, said election being for such purpose being duly ordered for the whole county, and I hereby, as such County Judge do order said election held for the purposes and at the places set out therein; said order of said Commissioners' Court being as follows:

Notice of Election to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in Harris County.

Thereupon I hereby order, adjudge and decree by the Court that said persons who are freeholders and qualified voters in said Harris County, Texas, under the Constitution and laws shall vote at said election; that all votes at said election shall be by ballot, and voters desiring to prevent hogs, sheep and goats from running at large in Harris County, Texas, shall place upon their ballots the words "FOR THE STOCK LAW" and those in favor of allowing said animals to run at large shall place upon their ballots the words "AGAINST THE STOCK LAW" that said persons holding such election shall, in the time and manner provided by law, make due Returns to the County Judge of all votes cast at their respective voting places for and against such propositions submitted at said election, and that said returns thereof be opened, tabulated and counted, and that the result of said election be duly determined, counted and recorded, all at the time and in the manner provided by law.

And said petition having been found to contain the requisite number of names and being in accordance with the provisions of Art. 6520 R. S. of 1923, and all other provisions of law, it is therefore ordered by this Court that an election for the whole of Harris County for the purpose aforesaid be called in said Harris County, Texas, by the County Judge of said county to be held on May 31, 1932, and that the polls be opened in the usual voting places in the several election precincts of said county, and that the voting places and presiding officers of said election shall be respectively as follows:

The officers holding said election shall hold same in accordance with the General Election laws and in accordance with Chapter Six, Title 121, of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, 1927.

It is further ordered that the County Judge shall cause to be given public notices of said election for at least thirty days before the day of the election by publication of the order thereof in a daily newspaper published in said county, said publication of said order to be for a period of not less than thirty days before the day of election.

Further orders are reserved until the returns of said election are made by the duly authorized election officials and duly received as provided by law.

Therefore, I, E. H. Spencer, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do hereby call said election, for the purpose of electing, for the whole of said county, to be held as above set out in the order of the said Commissioners' Court, and direct that this order for said election be published in the Houston Chronicle a newspaper published in said county for thirty (30) days before the day of said election.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Houston, this 11th day of April, A.D., 1932.

E. H. Spencer, County Judge, Harris County, Texas. (Seal)

The State of Texas,
County of Harris,

I, Albert Townsend, Clerk of the County Court and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of an order entered by the County Judge on the 11th day of April, A.D., 1932, under authority of an order of the Commissioners' Court of the County of Harris, Texas, made on the 11th day of April, A.D., 1932, at a regular meeting of said court, a quorum being present, which order is of record in Vol. 1, page 385, et seq., of the Minutes of said court, submitting the question of whether or not hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in Harris County, Texas, which Minutes have been duly signed by the County Judge.

Witness my hand and seal of the Commissioners' Court at Houston, Texas, this 15th day of April, A.D., 1932.

ALBERT TOWNSEND, Clerk of the County Court and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas. (Seal)

AFFIDAVIT OF PUBLICATION OF NOTICE TO VOTERS IN THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE.

The State of Texas,
County of Harris,

Before me personally appeared Mr. G. L. Hines, who deposes and says he is the Treasurer of The Houston Chronicle Publishing Company, publisher of The Houston Chronicle, a daily newspaper, published in the City of Houston, Harris County, Texas, and that he further deposes and says he published in said newspaper on the following dates, viz.: April 10th thru May 1st, 1932 inc., the Notice of Stock Law Election, Hogs, etc.
of the County of Harris (Judge H. H. Spencer) of Houston, Texas, and a clipping of said copy is hereunto attached.
C. L. Hins.
Subscribed and sworn to before me by said affiant on this the 30th day of May, A. D., 1932.
Evelyn Cagno, Notary Public, Harris County, Texas. [Seal]

RESULT OF ELECTION

Whereas, the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, Texas, was hereby petitioned by A. W. Eaker and 129 other freeholders of said county for an election to be held in said county for the purpose of enabling the freeholders of such county to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county; and,

Whereas, said Court duly granted said petition, and passed an order directing an election for such purpose to be held throughout said county on the day designated therein, as fully set out in said order; and duly authorized H. H. Spencer, County Judge of said county, to call such election, and issue proper notice thereof; and,

Whereas, said election was duly ordered by said H. H. Spencer, in his official capacity as said Judge, to be held for the whole of said county on the Twenty-first (21) day of May, A. D. 1932, as fully set out in said order of election; and,

Whereas, said election was duly held in said county on said last named date, and the returns thereof were duly made, and were duly opened, tabulated and counted in an open session of the Commissioners' Court of said county, in the presence of Albert Townsend, County Clerk of said County, and in the presence of J. M. Ray, Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, of said county, and in the presence of Claude L. Starkey and B. J. Shallorose two respectable freeholders of said county; and,

Whereas, the result of said election thus determined showed;
FOR THE STOCK LAW 6032 votes were cast.
AGAINST THE STOCK LAW 1991 votes were cast.

Now: Therefore, the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, on motion of Commissioner Hensley, seconded by Commissioner Craytus, and unanimously carried, does hereby declare the result of said election to be in favor of the said law, and does hereby find and declare that said election resulted in favor of the law prohibiting the running at large of Hogs, Sheep and goats in said Harris County, and an animal of any of these classes of stock shall be permitted to run at large in said Harris County after the expiration of Thirty (30) days from the date of posting of the Proclamation declaring the result of said election, issued by the County Judge of said county, in his official capacity as such Judge, as required by law; and the said County Clerk of Harris County is hereby ordered to duly record this order.

Done in open court this 31st day of May, A. D., 1932. [Seal]

PROCLAMATION

DECLARING THE RESULT OF STOCK LAW ELECTION IN HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS.

Whereas, on the 31st day of May, A. D., 1932, an election was duly held in Harris County, Texas, to enable the freeholders of said county to determine whether hogs, sheep and goats shall be permitted to run at large in said county; and

Whereas, notice of said election was duly published in the Houston Chronicle, a daily newspaper published in the City of Houston, in said county, for at least thirty days before the day of said election, being published in said newspaper once a day for more than thirty consecutive days; and,

Whereas, at said election there were cast 6032 votes "FOR THE STOCK LAW" and 1991 votes AGAINST THE STOCK LAW as shown by the returns of said election, which were duly opened, tabulated and counted by the Commissioners' Court of Harris County, in open session, in the presence of Albert Townsend, Clerk of the County Court of said County, and J. M. Ray, Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, of said County, and of Claude L. Starkey and B. J. Shallorose, two respectable freeholders of said county; and,

Whereas, the result of said election has been declared by the Commissioners' Court of Harris County to be in favor of the Stock Law; and,

Whereas, an order showing such result has been duly recorded in the Minutes of the Commissioners' Court of said County;

Now, Therefore, Know all men by these presents: That I, H. H. Spencer, County Judge of Harris County, Texas, do issue this Proclamation declaring the result of said election, and declaring that the said result of said election was in favor of the said Stock Law, and that after the expiration of Thirty (30) days from the issuance of this Proclamation it shall be unlawful to permit to run at large within the limits of said Harris County any animal of the class mentioned in this Proclamation, to-wit: Hogs, sheep and goats.

To Certify Which I hereunto sign my name as County Judge of said County and affix the seal of the County Court of said County, at Houston, Texas, this the 31st day of June, A. D., 1932.

R. H. Spencer, County Judge, Harris County, Texas. [Seal]

Attest:
Albert Townsend, Clerk of the County Court of Harris County, Texas, and Ex-officio Clerk of the Commissioners' Court of said County. [Seal]
