Welcome to Gloria Dei!

The name Gloria Dei is a Latin phrase meaning God’s glory. We pray that here you will find his glory and love chiefly revealed in our Savior Jesus. May your time in worship be edifying and enable you to focus on Jesus as the solution to your sin and as the certainty of eternal life in heaven.

Should you need a restroom during the service, you will find them in the Fellowship Hall directly beneath the sanctuary. Exit the sanctuary by the main doors, turn right and head down the stairs, turn right at the bottom of the stairs and enter the first door.

If you need anything during the service, please speak to one of the ushers.

To Those Visiting with Children

The members of Gloria Dei believe that families should be able to worship together. It is clear that some amount of noise will come with children being in worship. Any noise children make in worship is the sound of families doing what God has told them to do: bringing their children to sit at Jesus’ feet. Should your family need a few moments away from the sanctuary, the Fellowship Hall located directly beneath the sanctuary is open and equipped with a closed circuit TV of the service.

Our Communion Practice

If you are a visitor with us today, we are glad that you’re here! We are celebrating the Lord’s Supper in worship today. If you would like to receive the Lord’s Supper today, we ask that you speak with Pastor Shrimpton or one of the ushers before doing so.

God requires that we only commune with those with whom we share complete agreement in God’s Word (1 Corinthians 10:16-17) and makes us responsible for ensuring that those whom commune know exactly what God teaches lest people commune to their spiritual harm (1 Corinthians 11:27-30). Because of this, we ask that any visitors who are not a member of one of our sister congregations give us the opportunity to compare what we teach with your faith to ensure that we are in complete agreement before you commune with us. Please speak with Pastor Shrimpton after worship for more information.
The Theme of Today’s Worship

Jesus will stand trial before the Sanhedrin and Pontus Pilate. He will be condemned in God's courtroom as he takes on all of our sins in himself. This is all coming, but for tonight we have a brief respite, a time with his disciples in the upper room, where Jesus gives his disciples and the church the most intimate expression of his forgiveness: his true body and blood in, with, and under bread and wine. Tonight, we take a moment to bask in the peace of God's love for us before the chaotic events of Good Friday.

Confession

Brothers and sisters in Christ, in this Lenten season we have heard again how our Lord walked the path of suffering which led him to the cross for our salvation. We have also heard our Lord’s call to intensify our struggle against sin, death, and the devil—all that keeps us from loving God and one another. This is the struggle to which we were committed at Baptism; God’s forgiveness and the power of his Spirit to amend our lives continue with us because of his love for us in Jesus our Savior.

Within the family of the Church, God never wearies of giving peace and new life. In the absolution, we receive forgiveness as from God himself. This absolution we should not doubt but firmly believe that our sins are thus forgiven before God in heaven, for it comes to us in the name and by the command of our Lord.

We who receive God’s love in Jesus Christ are called to love one another, to be servants to each other, as Jesus became our servant.

In Holy Communion, first instituted on this night, the members of Christ’s body participate most intimately in his love. Remembering our Lord’s Last Supper with his disciples, we eat the bread and drink the cup of this meal. Together we receive the Lord’s gift of his body and blood for forgiveness and participate in that new covenant that makes us one with him and one another. The Lord’s Supper is the promise of the great banquet we will share with all the faithful when our Lord returns, the joyous culmination of our reconciliation with God and each other.

As we begin the solemn celebration of our Lord's passion, let us confess our sins to him, receive his absolution, and be reconciled to God and each other in Christian love.

Holy God, gracious Father,

I am sinful by nature and have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions.

I have not loved you with my whole heart;

I have not loved others as I should.

I deserve your punishment both now and forever.

But Jesus, my Savior, paid for my sins with his innocent suffering and death.

Trusting in him, I pray: God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Silence for meditation and reflection

Our gracious Father in heaven has been merciful to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, who gave his life as the atoning sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ has forgiven us, has reconciled us to God, and has promised us the power to forgive and love one another. Relying on his promise, therefore, be reconciled with one another.

Brothers and sisters, may the peace of Christ rule in our hearts, in our words, and in our actions. Amen.
The Word

Salutation

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, in the Sacrament of Holy Communion, you give us your true body and blood as a remembrance of your suffering and death on a cross. Grant us so firmly to believe your words and promise that we may always partake of this sacrament to our eternal good; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 12:21–30

Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go and take lambs for yourselves according to your family size, and slaughter the Passover lamb. 22 You shall take a bundle of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and paint the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. None of you are to go out of the door of your house until morning. 23 When the LORD passes through to strike Egypt and sees the blood on the lintel and the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over that door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you. 24 “You shall observe these instructions as a perpetual regulation for you and your descendants. 25 When you enter the land that the LORD will give you just as he said he would, you shall observe this ceremony. 26 So when your children ask you, ‘What does this ceremony mean to you?’ 27 you will say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the Passover to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt. When he struck the Egyptians, he spared our houses.’”

The people bowed down and worshipped. 28 The Israelites went and did all this. They did just as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron.

29 At midnight the Lord struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on his throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner who was in the dungeon, even all the firstborn of the livestock. 30 During the night Pharaoh got up—he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians—and there was a loud outcry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not someone dead.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm of the Day

Psalm 116B

Refrain

\begin{align*}
\text{I will walk in the presence of the Lord,} \\
\text{in the land of the living.}
\end{align*}

Tone

I love the Lord, for he heard my voice; he heard my cry for mercy. Because he turned his ear to me, I will call on him as long as I live. The Lord is gracious and righteous; when I was brought low, he saved me.

Refrain
What shall I return / to the LORD for all his good- / ness to me?
I will lift up the cup of sal- / vation and call on the name / of the LORD.

Precious in the sight / of the LORD is the death of his faithful / servants.

Glory be to the Father and / to the Son
and to the Holy / Spirit,
as it was in the be- / ginning,
is now, and will be forever. / Amen.  \textit{Refrain}

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:16–17

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a communion of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a communion of the body of Christ? 17Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
The day of Unleavened Bread arrived, when it was necessary to sacrifice the Passover lamb. Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go prepare the Passover for us, so that we may eat it.”

They said to him, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”

He told them, “Just as you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters. Tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’ He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there.” They went and found things just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

When the hour had come, Jesus reclined at the table with the twelve apostles. He said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

He took a cup, gave thanks, and said, “Take this and divide it among yourselves, for I tell you, from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way, he took the cup after the supper, saying, “This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is being poured out for you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

* We stand out of respect for the words and account of the life of our Savior and King, Jesus.
Christ says, “Come, all you that labor, and receive my grace and favor; those who feel no pain or ill need no physician’s help or skill.”

Then hold fast with faith unshaken that this food is to be taken by the souls who are distressed, by hearts that long for peace and rest.
Nicene Creed*

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
   of all that is,
   seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
   eternally begotten of the Father,
   God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
   of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
   and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
   and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
   the Lord, the giver of life,
   who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

* The Nicene Creed was originally adopted by the Council of Nicea in 325 AD and has been a widely used confession of faith throughout Christendom since that time. Its chief purpose was to confess the Christian faith while defending the truth of Jesus’ divinity against the teachings of Arianism which claim that Jesus is not true God.
who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Church

Lord Jesus, you are the Lamb of God, pictured in the ancient Passover feast, now giving your own body and pouring out your own blood in Holy Communion. Just as the Passover lambs assured the Israelites of God’s promise to deliver them from death, strengthen our belief that the bread is your real body and the wine is your real blood, given to us for our forgiveness, life, and salvation.

Prepare us to receive this sacrament remembering your death and repenting of our sins.
Unite us by our oneness of faith throughout this congregation and our synod, and love us to the end that we may love others as you have loved us.

We rejoice in our fellow believers who have been instructed in your Word and confirmed in the Lutheran faith, who are now ready to receive Holy Communion.
Equip them with every spiritual blessing for doing your will.

We pray for those absent from the sacrament because of their own neglect.
Call them in your mercy to return and renew their faith.

Keep in your care those unable to receive the sacrament often because they are home-bound, hospitalized, imprisoned, serving in the military, or otherwise separated from the fellowship of believers. Encourage them so that they do not lose hope.
Be gracious to us all and nourish us with this feast, that we remain faithful unto death, and become partakers of the wedding feast of the Lamb. Amen.
Offering

The members of Gloria Dei give their offerings out of thanks to God for his unending love. These offerings are used to support our work locally and around the world. Our guests may give, but should not feel compelled to do so. If you wish to give a gift electronically, please visit www.gdluth.org/giving or scan the code to the right.

If you are a guest with us today, please fill out the “Connection Card” in the racks at the end of each pew and leave the card with an usher, in the offering plate, or with the pastor.

As the offering plates are brought forward, please stand for prayer.

The Sacrament

Luther’s Small Catechism on the Lord’s Supper*

What is the Sacrament of Holy Communion?

It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ under the bread and wine, instituted by Christ for us Christians to eat and to drink.

Where is this written?

The holy evangelists Matthew, Mark, Luke and the Apostle Paul tell us:

“Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, ‘Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.’ Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, ‘Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.’”

What blessing do we receive through this eating and drinking?

That is shown us by these words, “Given” and “poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins.” Through these words we receive forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation in this sacrament. For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.

* Martin Luther wrote his Small Catechism to simply summarize the teachings of God’s Word for families to use to teach their children. The Small Catechism is part of the confessions of the Lutheran Church and is widely used to teach both children and adults the precious truths of God’s Word.
How can eating and drinking do such great things?

It is certainly not the eating and drinking that does such things, but the words, “Given” and “poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins.” These words are the main thing in the sacrament, along with the eating and drinking. And whoever believes these words has what they plainly say, the forgiveness of sins.

Who, then, is properly prepared to receive this sacrament?

Fasting and other outward preparations may serve a good purpose, but he is properly prepared who believes these words, “Given” and “poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins.” But whoever does not believe these words or doubts them is not prepared, because the words "for you" require nothing but hearts that believe.

Tonight, may you remember Christ’s sacrifice as you receive his Supper. May the comfort of the forgiveness of sins be yours through his body and blood given with the bread and wine.

Amen.

Lord’s Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

O Christ, Lamb of God

* John the Baptist called Jesus the “Lamb of God” (John 1:29), the long-promised, perfect sacrifice for sin. The traditional name of this song, Agnus Dei, is the Latin phrase Lamb of God.

660 Here, O My Lord, I See You Face to Face, sts. 1, 3-4

1 Here, O my Lord, I see you face to face;
3 I have no help but yours nor do I need
4 Mine is the sin but yours the righteousness;

here would I touch and handle things unseen, another arm but yours to lean upon.
mine is the guilt but yours the cleansing blood.
Thanksgiving

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;

his mercy endures forever.

Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup,

we proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

We give thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us with this saving gift. We pray that through it you will strengthen our faith in you and increase our love for one another. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

1 The death of Jesus Christ, our Lord, we celebrate.
2 He blotted out with his own blood the judgment.
3 That this forever true shall be he gives a pledge.
4 His Word proclaims and we believe that in this supreme food.

5 A precious food is this indeed, it never fails us in our need, a heav’ly manna for our soul until we safely reach our goal.
6 How blest is each believing guest who in these promises finds rest, for Jesus will in love abide with those who do in him confide!
7 They who his Word do not believe this food unworthily receive, salvation here will never find—may we this warning keep in mind!
8 Help us sincerely to believe that we may worthily receive your supper and in you find rest. Amen! They who believe are blest.

Psalm 88

O Lord, the God who saves me, by day I cry out.

At night I cry before you.

2May my prayer come before you.

Turn your ear to my cry.

3Indeed, my soul has had its fill of troubles, and my life has arrived at the grave.

4I am treated like those who go down to the pit.

I am like someone without strength.

5I am turned loose with the dead. I am like the slain who lie in the grave, like the ones you do not remember anymore, like those who are cut off from your hand.

You have put me in the lowest pit, in dark places, in the depths.

7Your wrath presses against me.

You have battered me with all your breakers.

8You have distanced my acquaintances from me. You have made me repulsive to them.

I am shut in and I cannot get out.

9My eyesight grows dim from affliction.

I call to you, O Lord, every day. I spread out my hands to you.

10Is it for the dead that you do a miracle?

Do the spirits of the dead rise up and praise you?

11Is your mercy declared in the tomb, your faithfulness in decay?

12Is your wonderful work known in the darkness?

Is your righteousness known in the land of forgetfulness?

13But I cry to you, O Lord, and in the morning my prayer comes before you.

14Why, O Lord, do you reject my soul?
Why do you hide your face from me?

15 I have been afflicted and I have been close to death since my youth.

I have endured your terrors. I am in despair.

16 Your rage has swept over me.

Your terrors have destroyed me.

17 All day long they surround me like water.

They have battered me completely.

18 You have distanced my loved one and friend from me.

My only friend is darkness.

After the reading of the psalm, the appointments on the altar are removed in silence. This is a reminder of the emptying Jesus went through on this night in anticipation of his death on Good Friday.

The pastor will exit in silence. Worshipers are welcome to remain as long as they wish for meditation and prayer. When you leave, please do so quietly.

After all have left the sanctuary, we will get the Fellowship Hall ready for Sunday’s breakfast.
