

January Good News

St. Thomas the Apostle Religious Education PTO Monthly Newsletter

Dates to Remember:

Wednesday, Jan. 3:

Classes resume at 2:30 and 4:30 . We will be celebrating Christmas/Epiphany. All those students with allergies are asked to bring in a snack for the celebration. We will be serving cupcakes.

Tuesday Jan 9th:

Middle school classes resume. Class meets every Tuesday in January thereafter.

Thurs. Jan 11th: First Reconciliation Parent Meeting. 6:30 Parish Center

Ways to Help Rel. Ed:

Snacks are needed for the middle school program on Tuesday nights. Typical snacks include individual sized packages of: chips, crackers, cookies, fruit snacks, etc. Nut free is required.

Angels process, Three Kings line up and 5th, 6th and 7th graders volunteer as readers for the 2017 Christmas Pageant. More pictures follow.

Happy New Year!

Hard to believe it's already a new year. We have many activities (beginning with our Christmas/Epiphany celebration) and projects to look forward along with our celebrations of the sacraments of reconciliation and Eucharist.

Our classes will be continuing their community service projects. Please follow From the Teachers in future newsletters to see what your child is doing this year.

As we begin this new year I wish that you all may be filled with peace, joy and abundance of love.

Please note that the classes on Wednesday, January 3rd were not on the original calendar.

*God bless you,
Liz Kiselica .*

Easy Ways to Be Involved at Church:

Make sandwiches for the sandwich ministry. See STAWH.org website for details.

Shouts Out of Gratitude

Thank you to all the families and students who were able to participate in the pageant. Special thanks to teachers Kitty and Joy for volunteering to assist with the pageant. Special thanks to 7th graders Brendan and Quinn who stepped in to help bring up the gifts during Mass.
