19 Years Celebrating Homeownership Support
Hacienda CDC returns with their biggest annual home fair.

Portland, OR. When it comes to buying a first home, many people are not sure where to start or what to do. Hacienda Community Development Corporation (CDC) holds one of the biggest home fairs in the Portland area helping hundreds of families to make their dreams come true.

Latino Home Fair is an annual event that offers a great display of vendors, exhibits and seminars, all under one roof. Every year potential home buyers attend this day to get a clearer view of what the next steps are. "It's always refreshing to hear future homebuyers say that their first interaction with Hacienda was through Latino Home Fair and express how grateful they were for the event," said Erica Calderon, Hacienda's Homeownership Support Program Manager.

Madison High School will host this year's Latino Home Fair on Saturday, June 3rd from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. The event includes family-friendly activities, live music, and a raffle with a grand prize of down payment assistance to selected households.

Hacienda CDC is a national affiliate and active member of the National Council of La Raza (NCLR) Homeownership Network, the largest family of community-based organization working together to empower Latino asset-building through homeownership. Since 1992, Hacienda CDC has worked to build thriving communities in Portland, and currently operates over ten affordable housing apartment complexes. Hacienda's offices are in 6700 NE Killingsworth St, Portland, OR 97218.

The organization's mission doesn't only offer homeownership support, but it has created a diversity of programs such as:

- Expresiones & Sun-Youth Advocacy: After-school programs for K-12 students
- Portland Niños: Support, education, and home visits for families with children age 0-5
- Micromercantes: Business development for food entrepreneurs, based at the Portland Mercado.
