

Welcome to the Daniel Fast. Pastor Tom has often described the Daniel Fast with the phrase, “no meat, no sweet and no treats. Here is a collection of some of our favorite recipes. Everything you do and eat is your decision between you and God. You can be as strict as you feel you need to be or if you are just starting out, try giving up a few things.

May God Bless you on your Daniel Fast!

What is the Daniel Fast?

The Daniel Fast is based upon the prophet Daniel’s fasting experiences as recorded in the Bible. Scripture gives us some insight (such as in Dan. 10:3) into what he ate and didn’t eat; however, we don’t know his complete menu. What we do know is this: In Daniel 1, Daniel chose not to eat the royal food that he was being served and ate only vegetables and drank water. Another time (in Daniel 10:2-3) he deprived himself of choice food, meat, and wine as he sought the Lord in prayer. Most commentaries believe “choice food” would have been bread and sweets.

This is why, I believe, you will find some variation in the specific guidelines for the modern-day Daniel Fast, as far as what foods are included and which ones are restricted. The food guidelines on my website are the ones most commonly described in a Daniel Fast. The intention of today’s Daniel Fast is not to duplicate exactly what Daniel did but the spirit in which he did it. Daniel’s passion for the Lord caused him to hunger and thirst more for spiritual food than for physical food, which should be the desire of anyone choosing to participate in this type of fast.

The Daniel Fast Guidelines

Try not to get too hung up on what you should and shouldn’t eat. Remember, the most important part of the fast is that you deny yourself physically so that you may seek the Lord in prayer and grow closer to Him. Your particular fast may look a little different than someone else’s, but that’s ok. Some people may need to be stricter than others in their food choices so that their fast is a sacrifice for them. These food guidelines are meant to be just that – a guide. They are given to help you create boundaries for your fast.

Breakfast

Apricot-Nut Breakfast Bars

1 ½ cups old-fashioned rolled oats
2 tablespoons flaxseed meal
½ cup unsweetened apple juice
1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
¼ cup almond butter
¼ cup Date Honey
½ cup diced dried apricots (unsulfured)
¼ cup chopped macadamia nuts
2 tablespoons raw sunflower seeds

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Toast oats in a large skillet over medium heat 5-7 minutes or until oats are golden, stirring frequently. Transfer to a large bowl, and add flaxseed meal, apple juice, olive oil, almond butter, and Date Honey. Mix until well combined. Stir in apricots, macadamia nuts, and sunflower seeds.

Press into an 8 by 8-inch square pan that has been lightly rubbed with olive oil. Bake 15-20 minutes. Let cool in pan on a wire rack for about 5 minutes. Cut into 2 x 2 ½-inch bars and serve.

Yield: 12 servings (serving size: 1 bar)

Recipe Notes

- Store in an airtight container 3-4 days.
- Substitute your favorite dried fruit for the apricots: blueberries, cherries, dates, figs, or raisins. Make sure, though, that the fruit doesn't contain any added sugar or preservatives.

Baked Oatmeal

1 ½ cups old-fashioned rolled oats
1 ½ cups unsweetened almond milk
½ cup unsweetened applesauce
¼ cup chopped dried apricots
¼ cup chopped dates or raisins

¼ cup chopped pecans or walnuts
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon salt

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Put all ingredients in a large bowl and stir well. Transfer to an 8 by 8-inch baking dish that has been lightly rubbed with olive oil. Pour oatmeal mixture into dish and bake 45-50 minutes or until slightly browned and crispy on top.

Yield: 6 servings (serving size: 2 squares)

Recipe Notes

- Spread almond butter or Date Honey on each serving.
- This recipe can be doubled and baked in a 9 by 13-inch casserole dish.

Date Honey

1 cup pitted dates (about 6-8 Medjool or 18-20 Deglet Noor)
1 cup water
½ teaspoon cinnamon

Pour dates and water into a small saucepan, making sure dates are completely covered (add additional water if necessary). Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to low and simmer 45-60 minutes or until dates are very soft and broken down. Remove from heat, and allow to cool slightly for about 15 minutes. Pour mixture (including liquid) into a blender or food processor and puree until completely smooth. Sprinkle in cinnamon and stir well. Store in a sealed container in refrigerator.

Yield: 12 servings (serving size: about 1 tablespoon)

Breakfast Scramble

Sometimes it can be hard coming up with good breakfasts on the Daniel Fast, especially if you are used to eggs. I made what I thought was a delicious breakfast and it was quick.

1 tablespoon olive oi

1 medium onion, sliced
1/2 green pepper, chopped
1 cup firm tofu, diced in bite-sized pieces
garlic salt to taste
Italian herbs to taste

Heat a skillet over medium heat. Add oil and heat for a couple minutes. Add the onions and green peppers and stir fry for 2-3 minutes. Add tofu, garlic salt and Italian herbs. Continue to cook until vegetables are soft.

Makes two servings.

This was so tasty. The tofu is about the same consistency as egg whites and it soaks up the flavors of whatever it's being cooked with. Very easy, tastes great, and lot of protein

Banana Oatmeal Cookies

- 2 ripe bananas
- 1 Cup quick or rolled oats
- Optional: 1/4C walnuts, few tablespoons of peanut butter, dried figs, cinnamon

You definitely want and need the first two ingredients, but go crazy with the third (or fourth or fifth) depending on your taste. Just adding walnuts allows the banana taste to take center stage, so that version really worked for me. You can also add a little cinnamon if you're looking for something a bit sweeter.

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350.
2. Mash the bananas in a bowl.
3. Fold in the oats.
4. Decide what other ingredients you want to add, or mix and match.
5. Bake for approximately 15 minutes.

6. Cookies will turn dark brown, and have some give to them. Allow to cool on a wire rack before eating. Makes approximately 12. Eat immediately or refrigerate.

Smoothies

Berry Blast Smoothie

1 cup water
1 cup frozen blackberries, blueberries, and raspberries
1 banana, peeled

Yield: 2 servings (serving size: about 8 ounces or 1 cup)

Recipe Notes

- Your smoothie will taste best if either the berries or the banana is frozen. To freeze bananas, remove peels before placing in freezer. Put in a plastic zip-top bag until completely frozen.
- To make this a “green” smoothie, add 1 cup of fresh spinach or kale leaves (stems removed from the kale).
- Add 1 tablespoon flaxseed meal for a fiber boost.

Berry Blast Smoothie #2

1 cup unsweetened almond milk
1 frozen banana, peeled and sliced (about 1 cup)
1 cup whole frozen strawberries (about 6 strawberries)
1 Medjool date, pitted

Place all ingredients in a blender, and process until smooth.

Yield: 2 servings (serving size: about 1 cup or 8 ounces)

Recipe Notes

- To prepare banana ahead of time, allow them to ripen, remove peel and place in a plastic zip-top bag until frozen.

Sweet Spinach Smoothie

1 cup water
1 Bosc pear, unpeeled, cored
1 cup fresh spinach leaves, packed
1 frozen banana
1 tablespoon flaxseed meal, optional
1/2 tablespoon spirulina powder, optional

Yield: 2 servings (serving size: about 8 ounces or 1 cup)

Recipe Notes

- To freeze bananas, remove peels before placing in freezer. Put in a plastic zip-top bag until completely frozen.
- Substitute spinach with kale leaves.
- Use an Anjou, Asian, or Bartlett pear instead of a Bosc pear.
- Flaxseed meal is a powder made from ground flaxseeds. It is high in fiber and a good source of Omega-3 fatty acids.

1/2 cup diced onion
1 (15-ounce) can black beans, rinsed and drained

Using a fork or potato masher, mash beans until they are the consistency of refried beans. Reduce heat to low, and keep warm until pinto beans are done. To serve, place about 1/2 cup lettuce on each plate, and top with 1/4 cup pinto beans and a heaping 1/2 cup of black bean and corn mixture. Add desired toppings to salad.

2. Meanwhile, place 2 cups of water in a medium pot and bring to a boil. Stir in rice, reduce heat to simmer, cover and cook for 20 minutes.
3. While the rice is cooking, place a skillet over medium-high heat and add to it the sprouts, carrots, and garbanzo beans. Mix together soy milk, tamari, turmeric, and garlic to make a sauce. Add enough sauce to veggie mixture, tossing to coat. Cover veggie mixture, reduce heat, and allow veggies to simmer until tender, about 20 minutes. If liquid level falls too low, add additional water to the pan to prevent it from drying until veggies are finished cooking.

4. In a large bowl, combine veggies and rice. Place scoopfuls of the veggie and rice mixture along the top of the butternut squash. Season according to taste and serve with any remaining tamari sauce

you can substitute soy sauce for tamari

Spaghetti Squash with Basil-Walnut Cream Sauce

2 pounds spaghetti squash

Sauce:

1 cup unsweetened almond milk

1 cup walnuts

1 cup fresh basil leaves, lightly packed (about 10-12 large leaves)

½ cup fresh parsley, lightly packed

2 cloves garlic, minced

¼ teaspoon salt

1/8 teaspoon pepper

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. With a fork, prick squash all over and place in baking dish. Cook 1 hour.

During last 10 minutes of baking time, put sauce ingredients in a food processor or blender. Process 15-20 seconds or until smooth (less time if you prefer a chunkier texture). Heat in a small saucepan over medium to low heat; do not boil. Cook 10-15 minutes, stirring occasionally.

While sauce is cooking, remove squash from oven, and let cool 10-15 minutes before cutting in half and removing the seeds. Discard seeds. Pull a fork lengthwise through the flesh to separate it into long strands. Place strands in a large bowl.

Pour sauce over spaghetti squash, and stir well to coat. Serve immediately.
