JANUARY 7-13

ANXIOUS FOR NOTHING:
FINDING CALM IN A CHAOTIC WORLD

Join us January 14 through February 11 for our next series. This sermon series is based on the book, of the same title, by Max Lucado. We will look at the text of Philippians 4:6-7 where we will examine key concepts of celebration, asking for help, leaving our concerns, and praying with an intentional mindset. As our world gets more and more hectic, it is important for us to get more and more in touch with the peace that only God can bring.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

CARYL THORNTON - ARTIST'S BIOGRAPHY

Retiring to an adult community has afforded me the opportunity to draw upon all my past artistic endeavors and express my creativity in oil painting. Just five years ago, for the first time, I put brush to canvas with the encouragement of my brother, a professional artist. I called upon my skills of balance, texture, color and function learned while at the University of Washington studying interior design. I worked off and on for the next sixty years as a re-designer, using what the client had to organize and rearrange furnishings. My sense of color was honed while doing color analysis for wardrobe, make-up, and interiors. I am self taught and enjoy exploring a variety of subject matter and techniques. As a Christian, I especially enjoy painting as the Holy Spirit directs, sometimes portraying scripture. This is an area that I would like to develop further and am excited about where it might lead. Recently I have been painting with acrylic. Because it dries so fast in the Tucson climate, I find it difficult to handle. The experience has caused me to work faster and therefore, I think, fresher. I see my painting as an ever changing and hopefully improving live art form. It will be exciting for me to see where it goes. I hope you enjoy viewing my work and perhaps following my journey.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

The flowers that adorn the chapel and sanctuary each Sunday are a living reminder of God's beautiful creation. You are invited to donate to the flower fund in memory/honor of a loved one. Donations may also be made in celebration of an anniversary, birthday, graduation, or "just because." You will find a sign-up board located in the Gathering Place on the SW campus or you can donate by calling the church office at 297-7201.

The suggested donation is $40.
