Graduate Student Support: The Board voted in North America from other institutions not necessarly located in London to support it. The Board is making provision in the IOMA's financial statement for the cost of the conference. The Board is considering the possibility of the conference being held in London. The IOMA is not in the position to pay for the conference.

ICMA News

February 2000

Dear ICMA Members,

The ICMA Conference Committee is pleased to announce the Call for Proposals for the 2000 ICMA Conference, which will be held on April 30 and May 1, 2000, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Chicago.

The theme of the conference is "Public Sector Innovation: Exploring New Horizons." The conference will feature keynote addresses, panel discussions, and workshops on a variety of topics related to public sector innovation.

We encourage all ICMA members to submit proposals for presentations, workshops, and exhibits. The conference committee is particularly interested in proposals that address innovative practices in local government, as well as those that explore the role of innovation in the broader context of public administration.

Proposals should be submitted by March 1, 2000. The deadline for submission is March 15, 2000.

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact the conference committee at 312-695-2200 or via email at icmaconf@icma.org.

Sincerely,

The ICMA Conference Committee

The Dear Cheryl Dear (ex) seeks contributors to the Great Criminal Case, 1969 Print, 1970, Proctor & Gamble Alexander, 12000. The Great Criminal Case is a collection of short stories that formed the basis of the popular television series of the same name. The stories are known for their intricate plotlines and clever twists, and they have been well-received by audiences for decades.

The Garter Society of America, Inc., which published the original stories, is seeking new contributors to continue this tradition. If you have a talent for crafting engaging and suspenseful narratives, we encourage you to consider submitting your work.

To submit your story, please send a digital copy to our editors at info@g枨ter.org. We accept submissions in any format, but we recommend using Microsoft Word or a similar program to ensure compatibility with our editing software.

Submissions should be between 5,000 and 7,500 words in length, and should be original works of fiction. Please include a brief biography of yourself with your submission, as well as any relevant publishing experience.

We look forward to reading your work and hope to see your name in print in the near future. Thank you for considering this opportunity to contribute to the Great Criminal Case legacy.

Sincerely,
The Garter Society of America, Inc.
W. W. WICKER, Director of the American Veterinary Medical Association, has announced that Dr. Robert W. Anderson, President of the Association, has been appointed President of the American Veterinary Medical Association. Dr. Anderson, who has served as President of the Association since 1973, will continue to serve as President until the Annual Convention of the Association in 1974.

Dr. Anderson was born in 1925 in Washington, D.C. and received his veterinary degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1950. He has been active in the veterinary profession for over 25 years and is a member of the American Veterinary Medical Association, the American College of Veterinary Surgeons, and the American College of Veterinary Dermatologists.

Dr. Anderson has been involved in many aspects of veterinary medicine, including research, teaching, and practice. He has written extensively on the subject of dermatology and has published numerous papers in the field. His research has focused on the treatment and prevention of skin diseases in animals.

Dr. Anderson is a past president of the American Veterinary Medical Association and has served on the Board of Directors for over 10 years. He has been recognized for his contributions to veterinary medicine and has received numerous awards and honors for his work.
