

TRISEARCH

TriSearch and our Construction division identify and service the human capital needs of select client companies within the construction and real estate industries throughout North America. In having direct industry experience, current marketplace knowledge, and robust relationships with top professionals across the United States and Canada, TriSearch takes a holistic, yet intuitive approach in partnering with our clients to truly understand and repeatedly deliver high-performing, key contributors into the respected Commercial Construction and Development arena.

Our forward-thinking, pro-active team is dedicated to securing top talent within the marketplace, whether sourced for a General Contractor, Real Estate Developer, Material Supplier, Project Owner direct, or Specialty Subcontractor on a Local, Regional, National, or International level.

A prerequisite to recruit for TriSearch is proven industry experience. The relevant experience and meaningful network of relationships developed over many years of working directly within the industry uniquely position us to perform at a very high level and with great efficiency. Combined our recruiters have over 15+ years working on high-end notable construction projects throughout the Southeast United States.

Common sectors of focus include Commercial (Office, Retail, Industrial, Hospitality, Infrastructure, Health Care, Government, and Civil Projects) and Mixed-Use Development.

We complete searches in the following areas:

- Executive Level – President, CEO, General Counsel, CFO, COO, CSO, CAO, CIO, CTO, VP, SVP, EVP
- Regional / Area / District / Division Management
- Construction & Site Management
- Project & Administrative Management
- Pre-Construction / Scheduling / Estimation, Safety Planning
- Design-Build / Site Selection & Analysis
- Architectural / Engineering (Public, Private, Structural, Civil, MEP)
- Purchasing / Material Procurement
- Sustainability / LEED AP / Environmental
- Business Development / Marketing
- Finance / Accounting

Our search process begins and ends with you. We interview each candidate and pre-qualify each person prior to you speaking with them. We manage the entire process from job requisition to scheduling interviews to pre-closing the candidate on acceptance of an offer.
