

Pressure Equipment Integrity, Visual Inspector

We are currently seeking a full time Pressure Equipment Integrity, Visual Inspector to join our young and energetic growing company in Edmonton. This individual will be working in a close knit team and is responsible for visual inspections and any other verification to meet client and code specifications.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Performing internal and external visual inspections on any pressure related equipment including boilers, heaters, drums, tanks, vessels, coolers, filters, skids, exchanges and towers
- Monitor and document any equipment degradation or failures
- Coordinating activities with NDE counterparts as per client work packages
- Following through with pressure piping and equipment repair scope
- Assist other groups with Infrared stitching, preparing reports, etc.
- Manage client requests and portfolios
- Outreaching and networking for new project opportunities
- Conduct third party shop inspections for clients regarding equipment rebuild or installation
- Provide mentoring and onsite training to any new or less experienced colleagues
- Packing and unpacking tools and equipment after each project
- Equipment / inspection tools calibration
- IR camera validation (upon Level II Supervision)
- Upkeep equipment organization and storage
- New equipment labeling and logging
- General care, maintenance, and cleaning of inspection tools
- General repair and assembly work in the warehouse
- Participating in IRED's safety meeting, training, and Drug & Alcohol testing when required
- Other projects as required

Skills and Requirements

- Diploma or degree relatable to Chemical, Corrosion, Mechanical or Metallurgic Engineering
- Minimum 3 years of experience in industry and API 510 certification
- Flexible and adaptable to changing work load and demands
- Must be able to travel for extended periods of time as requires
- Willing to work overtime and shift work as required
- Ability to read and understand technical information such as drawings and P&ID
- Strong organizational skills, detail oriented, with the ability to prioritize and multi-task
- Interested in learning additional inspection techniques and expanding their expertise
- Team player with effective communication both verbal and written
- Ability to work with minimal supervision and is safety conscious
- Must be able to lift heavy equipment and in good physical health
- Not afraid of height and confined space
- Experience with MS Word, Outlook, and programs similar to Photoshop and SnagIt
- Must have legal authorization to work in Canada
- Must have valid driver's license and clean abstract
- Must pass a pre-employment drug and alcohol screen test

IRED THERMAL GROUP
11330 143 STREET
EDMONTON, ALBERTA T5M 1V5
WWW.IREDTHERMAL.COM

IRED Thermal Group offers stability, competitive wages, benefits, and potential career growth. This is a permanent, full-time position based out of our Edmonton office, with travel throughout Alberta, Saskatchewan, British Columbia, and beyond.

To apply for this position, please email your cover letter and resume to careers@iredthermal.com with the subject line labelled: Pressure Equipment Integrity, Visual Inspector – First & Last Name

We thank you for your interest, however only qualified candidates will be contacted for an interview.