STATE Studio is located in Kunsthaus H3 — a stunning new build development that demands attention with its exposed brick work and eye-catching red window overlooking the Kleistpark junction. Situated in the vibrant centre of Schöneberg, the industrial style metal and glass construction also features direct access to the Kleistpark underground station. This architectural masterpiece is located a stone’s throw away from Potsdamer Straße — one of Berlin’s most exciting gallery districts — directly opposite the Medienhaus of Berlin University of the Arts.
STATE Studio boasts two panoramic windows and 300m$^2$ of contemporary and versatile space.
