

SAMPLER CD INDEX

1 O'Carolan's Quarrel with the Landlady - A big thank you to Steve and Ruth Smith for submitting the first track in our O'Carolan issue of DPN. This is from their CD, Dancin' Cross the Strings. Hear more cuts from this project and order the CD at www.stevenandruth.com.

2 Sí Beag Sí Mór - Stephen Seifert recorded our second track specifically for this issue. I think you're going to love his gentle treatment of this familiar O'Carolan tune. Check out Stephen's books and recordings at www.stephenseifert.com.

3 Planxty Irwin - This beautiful Irish air was recorded and submitted by Stephen Humphries. It is from his popular CD, By the Pond. Order it at www.stephenhumphries.com.

4 Chapter 4 - In my Editor's letter, on page 4, I write about the important role Patreon.com is playing in the lives of many musicians. This track wouldn't exist without it. It was recorded and written by Aaron O'Rourke, and was originally released to his Patreon supporters. Learn more at www.patreon.com/aaronorourke. Chapter 4 is one of four pieces in a partita Aaron wrote for solo mountain dulcimer. Recordings of the other pieces, as well as, dulcimer tab for the entire partita, are available to Aaron's patrons.

5 Planxty Corcoran - This is a version, or maybe I should call it an interpretation, of one of my favorite O'Carolan tunes, "Planxty Corcoran." It is from my Turning Point CD, available on iTunes and other digital music sources.

6 Blind Mary - Tim Seaman was quick to offer a cut for the O'Carolan themed CD. It is from his Celtic Airs project, released in 2010. Tim has an impressive discography at his website www.timothyseaman.com.

7 O'Carolan's Draught - Ruth Smith plays a lot of O'Carolan music, beautifully, I should add. She was generous enough to send us a second track, "O'Carolan's Draught," for this issue. This is also from Steve and Ruth's Dancin' Cross the Strings CD.

8 Catherine Martin - Dave Holeton arranged and recorded this version of O'Carolan's, "Catherine Martin." He submitted the tablature as well, but I ran out of space in this issue, so I've made it available for download at www.dpnews.com/Catherine\_Martin.

9 Woodland Dance - This is from Joshua Messick's latest CD, also called Woodland Dance. Josh is doing some amazing work on hammered dulcimer and it's paying off. He was recently invited to Japan to record for a movie score! Read about it on page 24.

10 Enamored - On the evening of April 29, 2017, Squirrels' Nest jam member Nikki Schmiedicke and her family escaped a fire that burned their business and their home, losing almost everything. Several members of the Squirrels' Nest, a group that exists to have fun at the Evert Funfest, were looking at ways to help, and decided to release a CD to raise funds for Nikki and her family. After The Fire is an amazing collection of music with cuts from Karen Ashbrook, Bill Bosler & Kevin Lockhart, Bing Futch, Jess Dickinson, Hammer On! , Gloria Hays, The Kaiser Family Band, David and Annette Lindsey, Dale Palecek and Friends, James Rathbun, Bill Robinson and Friends, Timothy Seaman, Stephen Seifert, The Squirrels' Nest, Rick Thum, and Ted Yoder. Order it at squirrelsnestlive.com.

11 Zum Gali Gali - This track goes with the story and sheet music on page 38, and is from one of our favorite new DPN contributors, David Elosser.

12 Dulcimer Geek Podcast - This is a little bit out of the ordinary for the DPN Sampler CD, but I had space, so Stephen Seifert, Aaron O'Rourke, and I recorded a mini-version of our Dulcimer Geek Podcast. Don't know what a podcast is? That's why we included this track. Listen to a full version at www.dpnews.com.

13 'Twas Down in the Meadows - This is a traditional Irish tune from Melodies and More for Mountain Dulcimer by Martha Einan. This was recorded by Steve Eulberg. You can read about Martha's new book on page 42.

14 Beautiful Savior - This teaching track goes along with Steve Eulberg's article about arranging for mountain dulcimer ensemble, on page 32.
