SECTION I
Big Book of Gifts

Jr. Rave Backpack

$20⁰⁰ A knapsack equally suited for a plucky 5-year-old or a rebellious 15-year-old (gap.com).

Tivoli Eggs

Laid by Barred Rock and Buff Orpington hens at Heermance Farm in Tivoli, New York. Buvette's Jody Williams swears by them (Gansevoort Market, 52 Gansevoort St.; no phone).

$7⁰⁰
per dozen

Two-Year Rye

$50⁰⁰ Willett's small-batch straight rye whiskey is a limited release, aged in oak barrels for two years, with notes of butterscotch (chelseavinevault.com).

Surprise-Guest Stool

$32⁰⁰ A metallic-cardboard alternative to an upside-down bucket; light enough to kick to the corner when guests go home (peaceandriot.com).

Good Soup

$12⁰⁰ Proceeds from each bottle of Shore Soup Project's savory offerings go toward sending hot meals to homebound Rockaway residents (shoresoupproject.org).

Diorific Talons

$27⁰⁰ Limited-edition colors from Christian Dior that'll zhuzh up any holiday-party look (bloomingdales.com).

Portuguese Squid

$11⁰⁰ Hand-packed in a ragout sauce by Jose Gourmet, a father-son duo from Lisbon (themaideanlane.com).

MacGyver Hair Clip

$10⁰⁰ Aside from keeping down flyaways, this clip also unsnaps to function as a wrench, screwdriver, and sharp cutting edge (animicausa.com).

Exclusive Greensward Cheese

$30⁰⁰ Murray's created this silky, bacon-y spreader from scratch—it was commissioned by the restaurant Eleven Madison Park (murrayscheese.com).
