

ON ENGAGEMENT SESSIONS

---

BY KATIE DESSIN PHOTOGRAPHY

a comprehensive guide to engagement sessions & why they're so valuable

JUST A FEW
REASONS ON WHY
AN ENGAGEMENT SESSION IS A BRILLIANT IDEA FOR YOU

reason one

YOU'LL BE USING THOSE PHOTOS

---

Believe it or not, you'll probably be using those engagement photos over and over again before the big day arrives. My clients love sending out photo-laced Save The Date cards or using their images for their wedding website. Other clients actually incorporate engagement images into their wedding invitation suite or wedding decor! I also offer wedding sign-in albums for clients with engagement photos in them. However you choose to dress up your wedding stationery, we're almost sure you'll find multiple uses for these fun, romantic photographs.

PRACTICE FOR THE BIG DAY

---

When your big day arrives, some couples may be nervous about being in front of the lens. Having an engagement session beforehand is a great way for us to get to know each other and practice working together. You'll feel more confident for your wedding photos, and know exactly what to expect when working with us.

reason three

YOU GET TO EXPRESS YOURSELF

---

In your engagement session, anything goes! I highly encourage self-expression, including fashion taste, special locations, and anything else that's unique to you as a couple. Sometimes couples choose locations where he proposed, others a favorite Gorge viewpoint. I want to make each engagement session as unique as each couple. Without using overdone poses, or Pinterest ideas, I'm able to create special images for each couple based on their own personalities and love stories.

WE SEE WHAT WORKS FOR YOU

---

A lot goes into getting that perfect shot of a couple! Angles, lighting, and the right posing all heavily contribute to a perfect couple's portrait. Sometimes it takes us photographers a few tries to really nail down what makes a couple look their absolute best. An engagement shoot is the perfect way to experiment without worrying about time constraints as we do during a wedding. Once we try a few things and find your perfect look for photos, we can easily replicate it on the big day, providing you with stunning shots gotten very quickly under a pressured situation!
