The Land of Grant

In Georgetown

Bally's House Bed and Breakfast
937-378-9007
3937 N. Water St.
Georgetown, OH 45121

Conducted for 1825 is open for overnight guests. The home, very much in appearance, is the house where friends of the Grant's lived down the street. One of the oldest homes in Georgetown, the Bally's House Bed and Breakfast is a great home to visit.

Grant Birthplace

Gold Street
Georgetown, OH 45121

The old street home where Grant was born. The home is open for tours and guided walks are available through the house. The birthplace of a great president.

Grant Schoolhouse
Gold Street
Georgetown, OH 45121

The old schoolhouse where Grant attended school. The building is open for tours and provides a great insight into the history of the area. The schoolhouse is a great place to learn about the history of the area.

John Parker House
165 S. Main St.
Georgetown, OH 45121

This was the home of John Parker, a former slave and local hero. The house is open for tours and provides a great insight into the history of the area. The Parker House is a great place to learn about the history of the area.

Rankin House
165 Rankin Hill Rd.
Georgetown, OH 45121

The Rankin House was one of the original homes in Georgetown. The house is open for tours and provides a great insight into the history of the area. The Rankin House is a great place to learn about the history of the area.

Learn more at browncountytourism.com