Funded through the Washington State Department of Commerce’s Community Reinvestment Project, eligible businesses in King County can receive grants of up to $15,000.

Funds are prioritized for businesses 51% or more owned and operated by individuals from Black, Indigenous, and Latine communities to address systemic barriers, promote diversity, and to rectify the injustices stemming from the historical implementation and enforcement of the “War on Drugs.”

Funds can be utilized for the following focus areas:
- Capacity Building/Growth
- Sustainability (environmental, financial, social impact)
- Hiring (targeted towards workforce diversity)
- Retention
- Staff Training

Eligibility Requirements:
- Small Business or Nonprofit (less than 50 employees)
- Licensed in King County
- Funds are prioritized for businesses 51% or more owned and operated by individuals from Black, Indigenous, and Latine communities
- Identified need for funding in one or more of the focus areas

Applications close Sunday, July 14, 2024 at midnight
