At this camp we prepare campers to make healthy decisions in faithful and life-enhancing ways.

We provide age-appropriate, accurate information to equip campers to honor their goodness given by God, particularly around relationships and healthy sexuality.

Campers learn not only about anatomy and human development, but also the spiritual, emotional, and social aspects of sexuality.

Why do we have this camp?

- Guide Youth in faith-based conversations
- Remind campers they are beloved children of God
- Build self-esteem
- Teach youth about healthy relationships and boundaries
- Prepare campers for the challenges of high school
- Counter false information about our bodies and relationships
- Provide comprehensive resources about STIs, STDs, and sexual health

*"God saw everything that God had made and indeed it was good,
very good"*
