

GERMAN AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The course offerings at IS Düsseldorf are not limited to Scandinavian languages. We also offer the opportunity to learn German with us. We have been in close co-operation with various Scandinavian educational institutions for many years whose participants come to learn German as a foreign language with us in Düsseldorf and Cologne. In addition to university courses, educational tours for school groups and courses in the Swedish Folkhögskola, we also offer courses in German as a foreign language for companies and private individuals.

Instruction can take place either at our premises at the Swedish Chamber of Commerce in central Düsseldorf, through our partner, align media GmbH in Cologne, or else at the customer's own home or business. All instructors are native speakers of German and have many years of experience in teaching German as a foreign language. Instruction is communicative and practice-oriented, and the focus at all times is on the student.

Depending on the customer's needs, we also offer areas of focus that include the following:

- oral and written communication
- business German
- presentation techniques
- grammar
- applied geography
- intercultural communication
- politics, art, culture and business
