

Production Team Members

Firefly Kitchens produces artisan batches of naturally fermented foods specializing in kimchi and sauerkrauts. Firefly's fermented foods are raw, naturally preserved, and contain billions of live probiotics that are great for your health! We are a small, but dynamic, fast-growing company, and are currently seeking part-time food production workers to join our team. Ideal candidates will be detail-oriented and possess a strong commitment to quality in their work. We have several available schedules including options of approximately 20 hours per week and 30-32 hours/week. In this position you will be working as part of a team to process, produce and package Firefly Kitchens' products.

You will be involved in all aspects of the following:

- Cleaning, peeling, chopping and shredding vegetables in preparation for barrel fermentation
- Measuring, packing, labeling and boxing finished product
- Inspecting and cleaning jars and lids
- Moving, organizing and palletizing product for shipment

Ideal candidates for this position will have:

- Experience working in a commercial kitchen or food production environment
- Good knife skills and experience with food processors and shredders
- Passion for quality through teamwork and solid communication
- Ability to stand for 2+ hours at a time
- Food handlers permit
- Associate's degree or commensurate experience
- Demonstrated commitment to safety

Firefly Kitchens is growing and our need for additional production hours will grow as well. Hours of production are currently Monday through Thursday with an occasional half-day Friday.

We hire based on character, desire, willingness and ability. We are an equal opportunity employer. We are mission-driven. Our culture is vibrant and full of passion. We are a small company with a huge trajectory and looking for team-players who want to help build this brand to its full potential! All hands in to get the job done!
