2019 BIG EARS FESTIVAL PRESENTS:

LUCY NEGRO REDUX

Choreographed by Paul Vasterling
Composed by Rhiannon Giddens
Poetry by Caroline Randall Williams
Production Design by Doug Fitch

TRAVEL WITH PAUL VASTERLING AND NASHVILLE BALLET COMPANY ARTISTS FOR AN EXCITING TOUR DEBUT OF LUCY NEGRO REDUX AT BIG EARS MUSIC FESTIVAL.

Wednesday, March 20th, 2019
Knoxville, Tenn.
The world premiere of Lucy Negro Redux, based on the book of the same name by poet Caroline Randall Williams, will debut in Nashville on February 8, 2019. Then, we will take this groundbreaking production on the road thanks to a performance invitation from Big Ears Music Festival!

We hope you will join us for our public performance. Please find details below for how to book your trip – and don’t forget to let us know you’re coming by contacting Isabel Tipton at itipton@nashvilleballet.com!

TRAVEL

Each guest is responsible for booking their travel arrangements individually. Organized activities will be held the evening of Wednesday, March 20, 2019. Knoxville is a three-hour drive from Nashville. For those out of state, McGhee Tyson Airport is conveniently located about 15 minutes from downtown.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Hosted activities will take place in downtown Knoxville. We recommend considering accommodations downtown or in the Bearden area. It is advised to make reservations ASAP as the festival is popular and sporting events draw big crowds to the city. Several recommended options are outlined below for your consideration:
