President’s Message
Aileen Nettleton, president@lwvdanecounty.org

Centennial Celebration Coming!!

Register now for our gala Centennial Celebration on March 28! You will soon receive your special invitation to celebrate 100 years of service and action by the League of Women Voters of Dane County. Members will receive an “early bird” invitation to get the first opportunity to make a reservation. Be sure to make your reservation by mail or online in advance of community partners, friends and the general public.

We are very pleased that Dr. Carolyn Jefferson-Jenkins will be our keynote speaker. She was the first African-American president of the LWVUS, and is an advocate of voting rights and author of The Untold Story of Women of Color in the League of Women Voters. Our own former Madison poet laureate, Fabu, will present a poem commissioned by the League in honor of the occasion. And the evening will begin with live music by Brianna Ware and close with dancing to the spinning of tunes by DJ Clinton Scott. Celebrate with us!

One of our themes for our 2020 anniversary year is LWVDC: Past, Present, Future. Our history team has been uncovering fascinating facts and figures about our League’s initiatives over our 100-year past. We have gained an immense appreciation of the impact our leaders and members have made on our local, county and state government and in the lives of our residents. Did you know that it took over 60 years of work for marital property laws to be enacted on behalf of women in Wisconsin? Or that our League was instrumental in the City of Madison establishing the Equal Opportunity Ordinance and fair housing in the 1960s?

If you’ve “been around a few years,” as I have, there are many personal connections to be made, such as remembering participating in the Equal Rights Amendment March in Chicago in the 1970s. If you are younger, our League history will inspire you to take on the challenges we face today and join in future efforts to “Create a More Perfect Democracy” for everyone.

We hope to see you on March 28 as we celebrate our past and prepare for our next 100 years.

Come One, Come All – Open House!
Marilyn Stephen, mfs6100@gmail.com

We invite you to an Open House at the new office of the League of Women Voters Dane County. At this special event, you will be able to make your Day of Action pledge either online or on paper, participate in honoring the many volunteers in our organization, especially in voter services, and help commemorate the birthday of Susan B. Anthony. And yes, there will be cake! Please join us and bring a friend!

When: February 14, 2020, from 4 p.m. – 7 p.m.
Where: 720 Hill Street Suite 200, Madison
Parking is available in the Whole Foods parking lot.

Volunteer Request – Gala
Kathy Krusiec, kkrusiec@hotmail.com

Are you interested in a unique volunteer opportunity? Here is your chance to share your time and talents to make our centennial gala a memorable event. We have several areas that could use your contributions including set-up, clean-up, greeters, book signing assistants, cake design and delivery, way finders and help making beautiful backdrops.

Please email Kathy and indicate your area of interest and your availability prior to and during the event.
An Improvised Lively Issues Luncheon

Karen Gunderson, jokarjen@gmail.com
Photos by Ingrid Rothe available on our online gallery.

On January 18, right after a winter storm dumped nearly six inches of snow on Madison, over 60 LWVDC members and guests met at the new Madison College Goodman South Campus in Madison for our 2020 Lively Issues Luncheon. Students from the catering program prepared a delicious taco bar luncheon, with some excellent desserts to conclude the meal. After lunch and lively conversation, we settled in for the main event.

Because of questionable road conditions outside of Madison, our featured speaker, Dee (Denise) Sweet, a poet, environmental activist, and First Nations organizer, was not able to make it to Madison. On extremely short notice, members of our Program and Advocacy Committee came up with an alternative for the presentation. We first watched a video overview of the LWVDC voter service 2019 activities. It’s incredible how much voter service volunteers accomplished in twelve short months! View the video on our website at https://www.lwvdanecounty.org/voter-service-overview.

Next, we watched a video titled, ‘Reclaiming Their Voice: The Native American Vote in New Mexico and Beyond.’ This film highlights some of the most shameful periods in the history of the mistreatment of Native Americans by Europeans.

It wasn’t until 1924 that Native Americans were granted citizenship, and they were not allowed to vote in New Mexico until 1948. Gaining the right to vote, however, did not mean that Native Americans were easily able to exercise that right. The 2010 film by Dorothy Fadiman documents examples of voter suppression in the early 2000s in New Mexico. Native Americans organized and made a strong effort to register their people and encourage them to vote. It was inspiring to see the perseverance of the organizers.

Numerous barriers prevented Native Americans from being able to exercise their right to vote. Many voters who registered found they were not on the voter rolls on Election Day. And there were highly suspicious results attributed to alarming number of undervotes. It was disheartening to realize how many people worked to deny Native Americans the vote.

We all need to be aware of this history. Some of the same techniques of voter suppression are currently being used against other groups of voters. Notably, these struggles happened prior to 2013, when the US Supreme Court found that the Voting Rights Act, which had helped the Pueblo peoples win their case, was no longer needed. It is quite likely that the suppression continues today against Native Americans and others.

At the end of the video, several audience members shared experiences and thoughts on the issue of voter suppression, especially against Native Americans, and how the League might partner with Native American groups to ensure that they can exercise their right to vote.

Other recommendations by the Program Committee include “Ma’liingan: Brother Wolf,” a Wisconsin Public Television documentary, and “The Story of Act 31,” by J.P. Leary, about how Native American history and culture were added to the Wisconsin school curriculum. Search “Act 31 Wisconsin” for many more resources.

If you missed the Lively Issues Luncheon this year, plan to attend next year. The topic and conversation are always interesting and thought-provoking.
The Apartment Project – Volunteers Needed
JoAnn Boushon, aptproject@lwvdanecounty.org

Are you seeking a new and unique voter service opportunity in your neighborhood? Consider The Apartment Project. Volunteers will:

- inform apartment residents about voter registration and Voter ID requirements
- conduct voter registration events at apartment complexes
- facilitate the addition of addresses for new apartment buildings into MyVote.wi.gov

Volunteers are known as “Adopters.” They will identify and adopt apartment complexes and provide registration and Voter ID assistance to residents and building managers.

With help and training from the project’s volunteer coordinator, adopters will negotiate with site-managers and management companies to engage in activities that include:

- the manager emailing information about voter registration and ID to all residents
- the manager posting voter registration and ID information in shared spaces of apartment buildings
- the manager including voter registration and ID information in packets for new residents
- the adopter conducting a literature drop or sharing information directly with residents, door to door
- the adopter conducting voter registration events in the complex

Online tools are available to help volunteers to identify apartment complexes. Sign up to be an Adopter and report progress with voter outreach activities.

Contact the volunteer coordinator at aptproject@lwvdanecounty.org

High School Voter Education Action Team
Susan Fulks, Action Team Facilitator, suefulks@lwvdanecounty.org

The High School Voter Education Action Team began in January 2020 with a two-day registration event at Monona Grove Senior High School. We successfully assisted over thirty students as they registered online or via paper forms and answered many student questions about registering, voting and voter ID. Thanks to enthusiastic volunteers Pat Giesfeldt, Margaret Fuguitt, Judy Landsman, Marjorie Schuett, and Carol Weiss, and thanks to the staff of MGHS Student Services for their support.

The high school action team is presently scheduling winter voter registration events at the following high schools: DeForest, Deerfield, MMSD Memorial, MMSD West, Marshall, McFarland, Verona, and Waunakee. All Dane County high schools are eligible for our registration assistance. Interested teacher contacts should email Sue Fulks, High School Action Team Facilitator, at suefulks@lwvdanecounty.org.
Day of Action – Make a Pledge

Marilyn Stephen, mfs6100@gmail.com

Celebrate our history by pledging action in the future. On February 14, Valentine’s Day, the League of Women Voters of Dane County, along with Leagues in more than 600 communities across America, will be participating in a “Day of Action” coordinated by the League of Women Voters United States. It will be a celebration of the League’s 100th birthday with a theme of “Women Power the Vote.”

The League was founded by suffrage leaders to educate, inform and encourage women to exercise their brand-new right to vote. We honor them by following in their footsteps. We are asking our members to pledge their time to encourage their families, friends and co-workers to be informed participants in democracy and, most importantly, to VOTE. We’ve set an ambitious goal of 75% participation by our membership!

Members can pledge to take any or all of the following actions to improve voter turnout and contribute to an informed electorate:

☐ Contact five friends to remind them to vote
☐ Take a friend to the polls or to vote early
☐ Encourage others to vote on social media accounts
☐ Work at the polls (training required)
☐ Wear LWV VOTE button
☐ Attend a “new” League event (Forum, Unit Meeting, DEI Café, Book group)
☐ Invite a friend to the next Forum or to join LWVDC
☐ Send Valentines to elected officials to thank them for their service
☐ Go to the Vote411 or MyVote websites

A link to the pledge card will be on the League of Women Voters of Dane County website by February 3. Paper pledge cards will be available at all League events during the month of February.

Our Day of Action is part of a grassroots event reaching across America!

In Memoriam – Susan Byrns

Sue Fulks

Susan Byrns was an educator, a library media specialist in Oregon School District and a volunteer at the Wisconsin Historical Society cataloging old photos of Madison. She was an early, enthusiastic advocate for voter registration through LWVDC activities. Susan initiated lunchtime voter registration at West High School and was one of the founding members of the League's High School Voter Education Action Team. She combined her love of reading and libraries with voter registration events at Goodman Library and assisted voters in senior centers at election time. Her passion for students and support for voting rights for all will be missed.

An Update from UMRR ILO

Mary and Steve Ploeser

Happy 2020! The LWV UMRR (Upper Mississippi River Region) ILO has had an incredibly busy year. So far, we have held meetings in Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, and are hoping to meet in Soldiers Grove, Wisconsin, in April. As our bylaws state, we would like you to read about what we have done and offer any feedback that will help improve our organization. We welcome recommendations of relevant topics that you and your League members would find of interest. You are always welcome to attend any of our presentations. Check our website, www.lwvumrr.org, for our latest plans. Your input will help us plan for 2020-2021 presentations and activities. Please get back to us with any recommendations by the end of February.

LTE Regarding the Madison Fire Department

This letter to the editor was sent by LWVDC to the Wisconsin State Journal to acknowledge the positive step the Madison Fire Department has taken by ending the use of firefighting foam containing PFAS compounds. Madison.com published the letter on January 13th, 2020.

The League of Women Voters of Dane County thanks the Madison Fire Department for ending the use of firefighting foam containing PFAS compounds.

We support efforts to protect the environmental quality of the county, including the quality of its drinking and recreational waters. It is the League’s position that access to clean water that supports life and a healthy environment is a public trust, a fundamental human right, and is the shared responsibility of all who live or do business in Wisconsin.

We therefore commend the Fire Department for making the switch to a PFAS-free foam and for destroying the existing stock of foam containing PFAS. Further contamination of Dane County’s waters from at least one source of PFAS will be ended by this decision. It will also be beneficial to our firefighters, who will no longer be exposed to those toxic chemicals.

Aileen Nettleton, Madison, president, League of Women Voters of Dane County
On Saturday, December 7, Jan Anderson, Susan Sweet, Gail Bliss, Aileen Nettleton and her Girl Scout granddaughter staffed the LWV table at the Girl Scout Day of Service. The purpose of the day was to introduce girls and troops to service opportunities. Our primary message to the mostly grade-school-age girls was: talk to the adults in your life about the importance of voting. We provided bookmarks and other handouts for each girl to take home. They also made buttons or sashes, while we talked about the 100th anniversary of winning women’s right to vote.

A couple of leaders asked about the possibility of the girls handing out bookmarks or other literature during the cookie sale season (February 15 to March 22). There was some interest in the Voter Girl program, but mostly for the younger girls (Daisy, Brownie and Junior). Anybody interested in working with the Girl Scouts over the next few months, please contact Gail Bliss.
Committed to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Maria Spinozzi, bulletin@lwvdanecounty.org

LWVDC is committed to applying a lens of diversity, equity and inclusion to all of our work. As part of this effort, we hope to encourage our members to seek out a variety of sources of news, information and ideas. Maybe there’s a community paper you haven’t had the opportunity to read yet, a new type of media, a topic or issue that doesn’t directly affect you, a perspective or experience that differs from your own or an author that is dissimilar to most of those whose work you’ve read in the past.
