Early Voting and Election Day Voting

1. Registration and Proof of Residence

2. Voter ID and Proof of Enrollment
1. Registration and Proof of Residence
Wisconsin Qualifications

- U.S. citizen
- Not on probation or parole for a felony
- 18 Years old or older
- Resident for 28 days by Election Day
17 year olds are not eligible to vote in any election.
Residency

Residency for tuition purposes has no connection to Wisconsin residency for voting purposes.
Take great care with a registration form.

It’s a legal document.

Writing must be legible.
It must be complete

A second Election Official should check and sign it.
POR needed to register

- Proof of residence must be shown
- Any UW web page is a government document.
POR = Proof of Residence

★ POR can be presented electronically or on paper.
POR = Proof of Residence

For POR, UW-Madison students can use:

go.wisc.edu/Address
POR – student’s address page

- `go.wisc.edu/address`
- Student logs in
- Addresses page appears
Alternate path, using the Wisconsin App or a browser:

MyUW > Student Center > Profile > Addresses
The Addresses page is a government document, indicated by either:
- wisc.edu web address
- UW-Madison logo (via go.wisc.edu/address)
- (via Wisconsin App)

The student can update it to show their current Madison address.

Printed POR visual guide is available at go.wisc.edu/LWV.
To update the address:

Scroll down to Mailing Address

Click in the large box that has the mailing address.
A window pops up.

Update the address in the popup window.

Click SAVE
For early voting, check the address at MyVote.wi.gov to ensure it is the City of Madison.

For Election Day registrations, check that the address is in your ward.
After you witness POR, document it.

Document POR on the bottom of the registration form.

Documentation during early voting is a little different from Election Day documentation.

VOTER ID CARD

- To vote in Wisconsin, you must be a U.S. citizen, at least 18 years old, and registered to vote at your current address.

- You must print and sign the ID document. (Need a printer? Make an appointment)

- If you will be requesting an absentee ballot at MyVote.wi.gov, you can take a picture of the signed ID and upload the image when prompted.

- If you will be voting in person, you will need to present the physical paper card to the poll worker.

- Voter compliant ID cards can also be obtained at the Wiscard office in Union South.

- The UW-Madison voter compliant ID card is valid for voting purposes only.

If you have questions, please contact the Wiscard office at wiscard_id@union.wisc.edu or visit the Wiscard office.
Here is your UW-Madison voter compliant ID card.

1. Carefully read all information provided below.
2. Print this document on any printer.
3. Sign your name in the white box above the date issued.
4. Present the physical card to the poll worker for in-person voting.

In June 2020, a federal court ruled that an expired student voter ID can be used if:

It meets the specs.

And if the student presents proof of enrollment.
Electronic POE

★ Proof of enrollment (POE) can be presented electronically or on paper.

★ It is only required if the student ID is expired.
POE from go.wisc.edu/verify

- go.wisc.edu/Verify
- Student logs in

Student Name

“Certify Enrollment Status”

When used as POE, the address does not matter.
Alternative POE

Class schedule, or tuition fee receipt

ASM bus pass for the current semester

When used as POE, the address does not matter.
Important: Proof of enrollment is only needed when a student is using an expired student voter ID as proof of identity.

As an alternative to proof of enrollment, a UW-Madison student could go to voterID.wisc.edu and download a fresh ID.
