

Chemical Lady

living in a city named after something people call angels; laughing after nothing my whole life seems so in vain dig peaches working in an alley some say that she's lazy; smoking whiskey talking shit and pissing off all of my friends slow way down and I might as well be free yeah

even now and I might as well be free yeah

Tilley's in the back room fleecing everybody she' s wasted; Sue sells a quarter of soul for less than half of a dime and I'm wondering how it's all tying in to things i've done lately; my chemical lady she's with me baby all of the time

Slow way

Dragonfly

i'm coming down like 60 tons rolling climbing your back like your mama son told you i've got the means of a thunderbolt warrior i walk around tuned to wide open

Roller

hey kitten are you scratching at my back door soul is green and all I need's a little more not strong always goes right to my head she's a tease she always looks so innocent i can't take it anymore pound my fist into the door it's the one, it's the only one I need it's the source of all my innocence and greed long legs she my sister raven hair when she's gone I don't even fucking care

Believe It

turn around and your gone i've been kicked around drifting again run away from your life and your misery
never thought i'd be down in the shit and i'm wanted again
on a wave that i ride on a surfers dream

You better believe it didn't know you were low if I knew i had money to lend so i say that your sad with your corporate greed

Knuckle Down

Mississippi, won't you be there for me i've been hoping and praying for your sake

i've been hoping and praying for your slaves change your mind life won't change time slips by,

fuck the chains

Cracks In The Pavement

well I see its indecision but I just can't seem to get back to my old ways with starshine supervision i just stick my new religion in my veins

in my veins
in my veins yeah

gave you all the reasons in a world of changing seasons in my head well you lie when you get lonely but you know your my one and only friend only friend

only friend yeah

you better hope I don't ever come home
never come home don't ever come home well you say your always jaded but you know that sometimes lately you've been in my head well she always wants to be you but she said she'd tried to beat you in other ways other ways

other ways yeah

Money Man

i didn't miss nothing and I was slumming again i didn't miss nothing and I will all I long to be is your money man and all I long to be is your man my time is seeming

my soul has gone away
my friends all need it
all I want to be is your money man i didn't miss nothing and I was loaded again

till the end

Boss Hog

it's not in the way your never there you know that i told you before it seems you don't play fair i wanna say you get away driving home

it's not in the way you spend my bread you know how I told you before it's always in your head saw the man today he stood still time and put the cherry right in front of me bosshog

bosshog
bosshog

i'm the one who's in love with the sun i shed my fears you wanna celebrate
bosshog
bosshog

it's never enough and always too much
drugs have been my crutch

Cyrus

leave you all leave you all miles away waited longer than i'd like to say made up my mind i'm sailing on we get too lost in here when i....

behind all them pills thrown don't matter much too me when i'm high

people say you don't have much to blame i don't mind i don't mind stormy days sometimes she's inside too long makes me feel like something's always wrong always wrong

Yeti

look into my blood red eyes and then you'll hypnotize lust consumes your heart with flames my black cell your soul remains

searching for the answer then i gave you the key always knew what you wanted but you never could see now your crawling faster though that you could escape your master the wind is creeping up your back better look out now
