Historic achievement for Butterflying: piano music by Elena Kats-Chernin (ABC Classics/UMA): first album of Australian contemporary classical music by an Australian woman composer to reach no. 1 on ARIA Classical Charts.

Performed by 2015 ARIA Award-winner Tamara-Anna Cislowska and the composer herself, Butterflying is the first major survey of the piano music of Elena Kats-Chernin. Opening at no.2 on the ARIA Core Classical Charts, this double disc of piano music solo and four hands has enjoyed 13 weeks in the top 10 (8 of those at no.2) until this week's breakthrough to the prized no.1 position.

Featuring 14 world premiere recordings, this double-disc collaboration between these two leading Australian artists was described by Limelight magazine as "a true dream team" and accorded 'Editor's Choice' in its August 2016 issue. Says Kats-Chernin: "This is my largest collection of music so far. I write with the idea of talking to someone one-to-one and Butterflying includes a lot of different conversations. I'm so happy that people are listening in such numbers!"

Born in Uzbekistan, Kats-Chernin is now regarded as one of the world's foremost contemporary composers, writing music for the leading opera, ballet, and theatre companies and festivals. Her music has a rare ability to touch millions, with her music featuring at the opening ceremonies of the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games and the 2003 Rugby World Cup. She has received many prizes (such as 'Best Original Score' and 'Best composition') from the Helpmann, Limelight, Sounds Australian, Sydney Theatre Awards and an Individual Sidney Myer Performing Arts Award. Eliza Aria - from her score for Meryl Tankard's ballet Wild Swans, commissioned by the Australian Ballet - was famously used in British bank, Lloyds TSB's celebrated ad campaign 'For The Journey' and in 2015 she wrote with librettist Joanna Murray-Smith the first-ever opera for television, The Divorce, broadcast on-screen and online by ABC TV.

This week the Australian World Orchestra gives the world premiere of its first-ever commissioned work, from Elena Kats-Chernin, for the world's first concerto for 8 double basses, at the Sydney Opera House Sydney Morning Herald feature [here].

Tamara-Anna Cislowska is one of Australia's most acclaimed pianists, and winner of the 2015 ARIA Award for 'Best Classical Album'. Butterflying is her second CD to reach no.1 on the Charts. She adds: "Butterflying is a 2-hour-plus collection of pure creativity and escapism. It is so heart-warming to see the Aussie public embracing the world of Elena Kats-Chernin - surely one of the most human, likeable and dynamic composers we've ever had."

Critical praise for Butterflying:

“a true dream team... a dazzling collection... lushly recorded and extremely accessible... Fasten your seatbelts and hold on.” – Limelight Magazine, August 2016 (Editor’s Choice)

“Detailed clarity and vibrant energy makes every note a winner. Cislowska’s robust delivery of Schubert Blues, drawing on Schubert’s Death and The Maiden, encompasses the piano’s full expressive range. Other musical treasures include Dance of the Paper Umbrellas and Russian Rag. The composer touches depths of human emotion and sorrow in special creations such as Vocalise...” - Courier Mail (5 stars), 2016

“Whatever Tamara-Anna Cislowska does rewards attention and listening time... Many of the pieces here are most emotively taken by Cislowska... This is chingly liquid and memorably melodic music.” – Musicweb International, 2016
