If there is a determination that Grounds for Inactivity exist, then the Ministry shall send written notice to the member’s last known address, and request the member renews his or her membership in order to maintain active status and membership rights. If no communication from the member is received by the Ministry within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of submission of the written notice to such last known address, then unless the Board determines that good cause exists, the member shall be moved to inactive status and will have relinquished membership rights.
