

Wine is a food. - OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

Our list is predominately made up of family owned, artisan wines. We feature benchmark producers that stand the test of time, as well as independent garagist wineries making small handcrafted productions. As many of our wines are limited, the list selections change frequently. Have fun and please don't hesitate to ask us for our help in choosing the perfect selection for your dining experience.

SOMMELIER SELECTIONS

John's Pick

Pinot Noir

Rippon "Rippon Mature Vine" 2009 Central Otago 115bt

This New Zealand Pinot Noir features grapes grown from some of the oldest vines in the region. The wine is concentrated with notes of black cherry and earthy hints of star anise.

Natalie's Pick

Blaufränkisch

Iby "Classic" 2012 Austria 38bt

A perfect example of the highly drinkable wines being produced in Mittelburgenland, this young wine expresses pronounced cherry and blackberry with mild acidity and juicy tannin.

Carmelo's Pick

Gamay

Jean-Foillard

"Morgon Côte du Py" 2012 Beaujolais 80bt

Deep, structured, and complex, with a velvety lushness that makes it irresistible when young despite its aging potential. Truly elegant, and all natural besides!
