Great energy. Session was so fun!

Great session! We've been introducing play into our culture in our company. Our CEO/President is the driver of this and it was a component of why he hired me. We're reading essentialism and there is a chapter on play. This is great with those. Love the topic. Great presenter. Articulate, knowledgeable, kept us engaged. Have him back for sure.

Amazing first session! Perfect speaker to have first thing! 10/10

He is awesome. Great speaker with relevant info specific to my role.

He gave great examples on how to incorporate play into work. I work with warehouse and drivers. They need fun.

Great session for early morning!

Very interactive, fun.

Excellent presentation and data. Relevant to brooding, onboarding and training and even life!

He is so engaging it's impossible to leave the session without learning something useful to take into your organization.

Interactive, playful session. Energetic, knowledgeable speaker. Well worth attending at 7am!

Great 7am session. Gets me thinking of how to incorporate "play" into some training I am getting ready to develop. And how to bring it into everyday office environment.

The content was thought provoking but more application to work scenarios would be helpful versus just theory of fun.

Bring him back! Very energizing, engaging, impressionable. Easy to remember and utilize going forward.

Very engaging and made it a fun morning.

Incredibly engaging presentation! Thoughts, recommendations, very relevant and applicable to my business. I's highly recommend including him in future conferences.
