SUNDOWN

This album is dedicated to the memory of the truest Christian I have ever known, my dad, Robert Gaines Harris. He lived it every moment.

Growing up a preachers son, gospel music was an integral part of my life. I can recall with great clarity, sitting in a wooden church pew soaking up those wonderful melody driven songs. They were my musical beginning, and created an indelible impression within me that will go to my end. For that I am forever grateful.

The songs on this album were specifically chosen for the personal sentiment they hold for me. I'm instantly taken back to my youth and for a few brief moments, I'm performing with The Harris Family Band as my mom sings "Falling Leaves" I'm sitting in the church pew during Camp Meeting, listening to the incredible stereo strumming sound of two blonde guitars, as "Come Morning" is performed with impeccable harmonies..... I'm in our living room listening to Dad's heartfelt out-of-tune accompaniment to the Chuck Wagon Gang's "Sundown".....and the list goes on and on.....

Thank You to my incredible supporting cast! Your talents and accomplishments speak for themselves, and I am truly honored. A Special Thanks to Orange Blossom Records, Joyce, Mike, Lisa and their wonderful family!
