

Born and raised in Hampton Roads, Virginia, Carter has always been passionate about landscapes that blend the varied experiences of locals and tourists, especially those spaces grounding in their historic context.

Educated in Virginia and Ireland, Carter seeks to create design interventions that highlight and celebrate the existing culture of a place. Carter has worked on projects ranging from entertainment districts to historic urban assessments and park master plans, always focusing on how the user will personalize and own the space.

Education

Bachelor of Landscape Architecture, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
Minor: Leadership and Social Change
Magna Cum Laude

Professional Memberships

American Society of Landscape Architects,
Associate Member

Career History

2016-Present	Associate Marquis Latimer + Halback, Inc. St. Augustine, Florida
2015	Designer Community Design Assistance Center Blacksburg, Virginia
2013	Undergraduate Research Fellow National Science Foundation: Stream Lab Blacksburg, VA

Awards and Honors

Landscape Architecture Foundation
University Olmsted Scholar

Virginia ASLA Chapter
Undergraduate Honor Certificate: Narrative

Virginia Tech
AJ Davis Undergraduate Research Award:
Surface Water-Groundwater Interaction: A Study of Hydraulic Flow Paths and Nutrient Dynamics in a Floodplain Reach of a Restored Stream

Virginia Tech, Landscape Architecture Honor Society
Sigma Lambda Alpha - President

Research:

Reclaiming Charleston's Waterfront: The Charleston Port District

Surface Water-Groundwater Interaction: A Study of Hydraulic Flow Paths and Nutrient Dynamics in a Floodplain Reach of a Restored Stream