

Joey's Corner

For this edition of Joey's Corner we are doing The Battle of Fromelles because yesterday was the 100th year anniversary.

The Battle of Fromelles was a British military operation on the Western Front during World War I. The combatants were Australia, United Kingdom and the German Empire.

Interviews

We interviewed the grade 5/6s to see what they thought about the battle of Fromelles.

Bridget H: I think that it is really sad that lots of young Australian men died and that they couldn't defend themselves.

Kate: It was sad.

Adrianna: It was very sad.

Harry: Very disappointing.
