For The Second Service

We thank the many students participating in the 2015 music festival Honor Band of Walla Walla University. Under the direction of Brandon Beck these students have worked hard for the past three days to form the cohesive ensemble we enjoy today. And these students come from all over the United States including, for instance, home schools and high schools in Washington, Oregon, California, Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, and Florida. Everyone is invited to the Honor Band Concert today at 4 p.m. in the sanctuary. Please join me in wishing them a warm Walla Walla welcome. We also welcome the many students visiting campus for March University Days. May we each sense the warmth of the Holy Spirit as together we worship God in this beautiful place.

The offertory presents several hymn tunes from Southern Harmony, the famous hymn book compiled by William Walker and published in 1835. In the anthem we hear the tune ST. COLUMBA often associated with the text The King of Love My Shepherd Is. You can find these words at Hymn No. 197 (and the melody at Hymn No. 639). The postlude also includes a hymn tune which you can find at Hymn No. 10, Come, Christians, Join to Sing.

The organ prelude, by Joseph Jongen (1873-1953), is titled Choral, but this is simply the word Germans often use for our Hymn. So in all of the service music we hear hymns or hymn-like music. As you prepare your heart to worship I invite you to silently meditate on the words of the hymns listed above or of those we sing.

—Kraig Scott

Spring Chicken by Bill Gifford. A fresh and funny new book about living healthfully.
